Both O'Neill schools participated Wednesday in the Ord invitational track and field meet. Atkinson and Stuart also competed. The O'Neill high Eagles picked up six points in 10-team class A competition won by Cozad. Bob Williamson finished third in the low hurdles; Jim Larsen ranked fourth in the high hurdles, and Larry Oetter landed fourth in the high jump. The St. Mary's Cardinals amassed 12 points in 27-team competition in class B. Spalding acad-emy finished first; Stuart, second; Atkinson high, third.

The SMA 880-relay team won first (Gary Holly, Paul Ziska, Larry Tomlinson and Larry Donohoe).

Tomlinson ranked third in the discuss and fifth in the shotput while Donohoe finished fifth in both the 100- and 200- yard dashes. Wednesday's showing indicated there will be keen competition in the Holt track and field meet Wednesday, April 23, at Stuart.

Two More File for Assessor's Job

Three Holt countyans filed for berths on the May 13 primary election ballot immediately before last Thursday's deadline. L. G. Gillespie of O'Neill and Mrs. Opal Keating of Atkinson, republicans, filed for county assessor. The incumbent, William F. Wefso of Atkinson, republican, had filed earlier. Two high on the ballot will fight it out in the fall general election. There is no democratic candidate for assessor.

Puckett of Atkinson, Walter democrat, filed for Seventh district county supervisor.
