Abandoned Farm Home Destroyed

Unknown Origin for Easter Blaze

EWING—An abandoned farm home located 1½ miles northwest of Ewing was completely destroyed by fire Easter Sunday. Ewing rural fire department received the alarm at 12:15 p.m. By the time the firemen reached the scene the roof and east side had been completely consumed by the flames of unknown origin. Only the north, south and west walls were standing and the dwelling was hopelessly lost. Firemen, however, succeeded in preventing any spread of the flames.

The place is owned by Earl Billings of Ewing, who told Fire Chief Frank Nofke the loss was partially covered by insurance. The house had not been occupied for several years.

The dwelling is considered a total loss, according to Mrs. H. R. Harris, The Frontier's correspondent.

Bad Roads Force Cancellation

CHAMBERS—The Easter sunrise services sponsored by the Methodist church had to be cancelled due to bad roads and weather.

The regular Easter service was held with a large number in attendance, considering the adverse road conditions.

The message by Rev. Harold Bonath concerned "What God Has done for Us". "How Easter depends upon us and what we do", the pastor declared. The combined junior and senior choirs sang for the service with Mrs. Elwyn Robertson as organist.

On Sunday evening, April 13, the monthly family night will be held at the church. The film, "Report Korea", will be shown.

Mrs. Laura Walker was a guest last week of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Crandall, at Fremont.

Robert Beckenhauer of Omaha spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Beckenhauer.
