

Kraenzel Will Be Featured Speaker

Sandhills Group to Meet at Valentine

VALENTINE — Dr. Carl F. Kraenzel, professor of rural sociology at Montana State college, Bozeman, Mont., will be one of the featured speakers at the annual convention of the Sandhills Cattle association to be held at Valentine May 26 and 27.

Dr. Kraenzel, noted lecturer and author, will address the convention on the subject, "The Cattle Industry in the Great Plains Area." Doctor Kraenzel has written several books, numerous stories, and many publications pertaining to the Great Plains. His latest book, "The Great Plains in Transition," is one of the most comprehensive studies ever made of the Great Plains area.

Other speakers May 27 will be Dr. Ev. E. Peterson, extension economist from the University of Nebraska; Dr. A. E. Darlow, vice-president and dean of Oklahoma State university; and a panel of veterinarians moderated by Dr. Robert Koch, associate professor of animal husbandry at the University of Nebraska. Veterinarians appearing on the afternoon panel will consist of Dr. E. Von Tour of Alliance; Dr. V. Johnson of Gordon; Dr. S. D. Stafford of North Platte, and Dr. D. Walker of Broken Bow.

The two-day convention will commence on Monday, May 26, and run through Tuesday, May 27, according to Harold Harms, Valentine rather and chairman of this year's convention. Monday, May 26, will be devoted to committee meetings and the annual business meeting. The annual banquet, program and ball will be held on the evening of May 26.
