

Venus Family in Aerial Trip to Mexico, Frisco

VENUS—Mr. and Mrs. George Heggemeyer and daughter, Helen, returned Tuesday, April 22, from a two weeks trip which took them to points in Texas and California and also to Mexico City.

They drove to St. Louis, Mo., and flew from there to Dallas, San Antonio and Mexico City, sightseeing at each place.

Next point visited was San Francisco where they visited Mrs. Heggemeyer's three sisters—Mrs. Michael McMenomy, Mrs. Claude Hutchinson and Mrs. Elmer Laebeke. They also visited Mrs. Heggemeyer's brother, John A. Frisch, and family.

Their flight from Frisco to Chicago, Ill., was nonstop.

Miss Helen remained in Chicago where she is employed as a teletypist with American Airlines. Her parents went on to St. Louis and visited with Mr. Heggemeyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heggemeyer, and family, former Venus residents.

Colorful May Day Breakfast Held

Musical Reading Is an Original

PAGE—The annual May breakfast was held at the Methodist church Thursday morning at 9 o'clock with 63 in attendance.

Fellowship hall was decorated with a May pole centering the room. Miniature May poles were used as placecards. Potted plants graced the tables and were placed about the rooms.

Following program was presented:

Mrs. Lisle Mewmaw gave the opening prayer; vocal number, "Give Us This Day", by a sextette (Mesdames Ivan Heiss, Lisle Mewmaw, Dale Stauffer, Harold Kelly, Roy Hansen and Neven Ickes, Jr.); reading, "Lady Melissa", by Mrs. Evelyn Gray; "Hanging the May Basket", Stephanie French; Mrs. A. O. Weber and Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge sang a duet, "My Mother's Bible"; "Mother's Day", reading, by Mrs. Jud Russell; "God in a Garden", a musical reading, by Mrs. Dora Townsend.

Graduation march, "Pomp and Circumstance", by Mrs. L. F. Knudsen; "Taps" by Mrs. Knudsen in tribute to memorial day.

Mrs. J. W. French applied the yardstick of progress to the year's work accomplished by the WSCS and King's Daughter's societies and Mrs. Herbert Steinberg and Mrs. Melvin Carson gave a financial report of money accrued and spent.

Adult life membership pins were presented to Mrs. Jesse Kelly by Mrs. Finch for the WSCS and to Mrs. Harold Kelly by Mrs. Frank Beelater for the King's Daughters.

As a surprise feature, Mrs. C. P. Leach was crowned queen of May by Mrs. Jesse Kelly in a simple ceremony. Mrs. J. W. Finch was master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Harold Heiss, chairman of the church social activities, and her assistants served breakfast of bacon and eggs, hot breads, rolls, jelly and coffee with a pineapple juice cocktail.

A four-generation group, headed by Mrs. Hattie Carson, was present. The other three representatives were Mrs. Harold Kelly, Mrs. Henry Schneider and Pamela Denise Schneider.

The musical reading given by Mrs. Townsend was her own composition after searching in vain for a certain elusive garden poem. She adapted the music of a song, "By the Crystal Sea", familiar to her since childhood when she, Mrs. Louise Heiss, Mrs. Allen Haynes, Rollie Snell and John Gray attended school and Sunday-school in the old soddy, the pioneers' first entertainment center.
