Rev. Herbert Young performed the 2 o'clock rite. Music was furnished by Mrs. Robert Brayton of Stuart and Miss Sharon Cooper of Winner, S. D., who played the traditional wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white waltz-length gown of lace over satin, fashioned with a sweet heart neckline and long sleeves tapering to points at the wrists. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and greenery.

Her sister, Miss Phyllis Weber, was the maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of coral chiffon and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations.

William Cornish of Pierre, S. D., served his cousin's best man. Ushers were Raymond Norton of Mills, brother-in-law of the bride, and Wayne Cornish of Valentine, uncle of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for about 50 guests.

The couple will be at home in White River, S. D., after their wedding trip.
