Tot, 2, Struck by Moving Car Ronald Krugman, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Krugman, escaped serious injury about 10 a.m., Saturday on West Douglas st.

The tot was near the Foree Tire & Supply store and passed between two parked vehicles to make his way across the street (south) in the middle of the block.

He walked into the fender of a westbound car driven by Kenneth A. Pollock of Nelligh. Pollock, driving a late model car, was proceeding at 10- to 15-miles-per-hour, witnesses said, and stopped immediately when the child was hurled against the pavement.

The child was taken to St. Anthony's hospital for observation, but apparently suffered no ill effects and was dismissed that day.
