Old Grads Gather at Inman High

Mrs. Rouse, 71, Is Oldest Present

INMAN—The Inman High School Alumni association held its annual reunion Saturday evening in which 106 persons were served, including recent grads, old grads, and guests.

Walter Fick was master of ceremonies. Mrs. James Gallagher, the former Alice Kivett, was in charge of arrangements.

Theme of the affair was "school days". On the program were Mrs. Gallagher, Roland Hansen (member of the class of 1958); Mrs. C. A. (Edith) Rutledge of Norfolk, Merle Crosser, senior boy and senior girls of this year's class. Joseph Coon of Beecher offered invocation.

The first class was graduated in 1903. For a time the school included only nine grades, then 10 grades, and about 12-grade high school was expanded to a full 12-grade high school.

Mrs. Gallagher is president of the association; Mrs. Norbert Clark of O'Neill is vice-president; Mr. and Mrs. Max Mossman of Norfolk are secretary-treasurer.

The dinner was served buffet style. Mrs. Grace Killinger Gannon was scheduled on the program but could not be present.

Mrs. Blanche Rouse, 71, class of 1903, was the oldest person present, and Mrs. Floyd E. (Estella) Keyes, 70, class of 1905, was second oldest present.

Coming the greatest distance were CWO Lorin Keyes, who is stationed in France, and M/Sgt. Cecil Keyes, who is stationed in Germany.

9 Adults Received into Membership

Nine new adult members were received into the membership of the O'Neill Methodist church Sunday morning, June 1. The impressive ceremony welcomed some transferred memberships from other churches and some entirely new members who have completed the membership training course.

The new members are: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Humrich, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Moore, Sgt. and Mrs. William Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hurley, and Mrs. Fred Jones.

M. L. Harkins, Wife Feted at Luncheon

INMAN—Mr. and Mrs. L. Harkins, 82- and 77-years-old, respectively, Wednesday, June 4, quietly observed their 56th wedding anniversary.

They were honored guests at a luncheon at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. E. Smith. Other guests were R. B. South and Miss Hildred Harkins.

Mrs. Harkins' maiden name was Ella Martin. She and Mr. Harkins were married at Griswold, Ia., June 4, 1902.

Family Gathering Honors Young Priest—ATKINSON—Mr. and Mrs. John Laible's home was the scene of a family get-together Sunday, May 25.

Out-of-state relatives were here for the first solemn mass of Rev. Adrian (Bernard) Laible, OSB, which was celebrated last Thursday at St. Boniface church in Stuart.

Laible is a nephew of the John Laibles and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Laible of Stuart.

Guests at the John Laible home for the family affair were his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Laible and Danny and Diane of Norton Grove, Ill.; their daughter, Mrs. Vincent Smedley of Deerfield, Ill.; their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Laible, and children and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gettner and children, all of O'Neill; and Mr. Laible's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Buscher and family of Breckenridge, Minn.

Arriving Wednesday, May 28 were the Laible's two daughters, Sr. M. Lorenzo, OSF, of Waupun, Wisc., and Sr. M. Raynardus, OSF, of Bensonville, Ill. They also attended Father Laible's ordination in Conception, Mo., Tuesday, May 27.

Among the old and young grads at the Inman high alumni gathering were: Front row—Miss Muri Keyes of Mesa, Ariz. (1934), Mrs. Blanche Rouse of Inman (1903, oldest graduate present); Mrs. Floyd Keyes of Inman (1905); Mrs. Clarence (Ruth) Hansen of Inman (1930, graduate present); Mrs. C. A.
