Doris Ann Spahn, Freddie Bollwitt Exchange Vows

Ewing—The First Methodist church in Ewing was the scene of the wedding on Sunday, June 1, of Miss Doris Ann Spahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Spahn, and Freddie Bollwitt, son of Mrs. Ed Urban. Rev. E. L. Bridger officiated at the 2:30 p. m. double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with baskets of garden flowers and daisies.

Mrs. Howard Manson of O'Neill played a prelude of wedding selections and the wedding march. Miss Elayne Helmer was soloist, singing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of embroidered-nylon net over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a sabrina neckline with long tapered sleeves. The full bouffant skirt was layers of embroidered net ending in a chapel length train. The fingertip veil was held in place by a lace pearl trimmed cap. She carried a bouquet of daisies centered with a removable orchid corsage.

Donald Spahn was matron-of-honor. Mrs. Robert Ray of Lincoln was bridesmaid. They wore street length dresses of lilac lace and white lace hats. Each carried a bouquet of white daisies fashioned around a velvet net heart. Candelighters were Misses Janet Hubel and Myra Lee Pruden. They wore dresses of yellow nylon with matching headpieces and orchid daisy wrist corsages.

Donald Spahn, brother of the bride, was the best man and Jerry Carlson was groomsmen. Dwayne Bollwitt ushered, assisted by Donald Spahn. The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark trousers and white dinner jackets. Their boutonnières were yellow daisies.

The bride's mother chose a beige linen dress with beige and lilac accessories. Her corsage was of orchid daisies. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white daisies.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the bride's home. The four-tiered cake was cut by Mrs. Ralph Keeler of Norfolk. She was assisted by Mrs. Oscar Weynig of Sheboygan, Wis. Six waitresses, Miss Judy Bartak had charge of the guest book.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a green nylon sheath dress with white accessories. After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home on a farm southwest of Ewing.

Mrs. Bollwitt graduated from Ewing high school, then attended Wayne State Teachers college and has taught in rural school for the past three years.

Mr. Bollwitt is also a graduate of Ewing high school. He served two years in the army, a portion of the time in Europe.

About 200 guests attended the services at the church

Dryak Rites Are Held at Niobrara

NIORRARA—Funeral services were conducted Sunday, June 1, at the ZCBJ hall in Niobrara for Otto H. Dryak, 54, who was hurt Tuesday, May 27, in a two-vehicle highway accident and died the following day in the Creighton hospital.

Burial was in the Pishelville cemetery. The late Mr. Dryak, son of Hugo and Bozena Dryak, was born September 27, 1903 in the Pishelville community where he was reared. He was educated at Verdigre high school.

On June 10, 1931, he was united in marriage with Maria V. Kubik at O'Neill. They became the parents of two children.

He farmed with his parents in the Verdigr community 14 years and was director of the rural school district many years.

In September, 1945, the family moved to Niobrara where Mr. Dryak worked at the Sedivy garage three years. For the past 10 years he had been employed by the Niobrara Farm Equipment company, and had been operating projection equipment for Joe Liska at the Niobrara theatre for the past eight years.

He was a member of the Niobrara fire department 13 years and was a member of the Pishelville community where he was reared. He was educated at Verdigre high school.

Survivors include: Widow—Maria; daughter—Phyllis, 17, and son, Stanley—10; parents — Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Dryak; brothers—Alvin of Council Bluffs, Ia., and Alfred of Verdigr.

Wisner Woman, 72, Survived by Mother

Mrs. Oran E. Bishop, 72, of Wisner was buried from the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at Wisner. Dr. H. C. Sandall of Lincoln officiated, assisted by Rev. Len O. Ricky. Burial was in the Wisner cemetery.

Mrs. Bishop, the former Maude Rees, was born near Pilger June 10, 1866. She was married to Oran E. Bishop March 25, 1908. They lived on a farm near Wisner until a few years ago when they retired and moved to town.

Mrs. Bishop died following a stroke. She had been in ill health a number of years.

Survivors include: Widower — Oran; son—Thomas of Lincoln; mother—Mrs. Alice Rees of O'Neill; brothers—Ray of O'Neill, Richard Strahle of Stanton, Mrs. Amos Ninham of O'Neill and Mrs. Jessie Heller of Donner Pass, Calif.; brothers—Ross and Walter, both of Norfolk; Ralph Rees of Amelia; Roy Rees of Ewing, and William Rees of Tilden.

Bertha Harkins, 84, Expires in Hospital

CHAMBERS—Funeral services for Mrs. Bertha Harkins, 84, a resident of Chambers since 1931, were conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 31, at Memorial Baptist church here.

Rev. Earl Schwenk officiated. Music was furnished by a mixed quartette composed of Glen Taylor, Zane Rowe, Mrs. Rowe and Mrs. Vernon Smith with Mrs. Ralph Garwood at the piano. They sang "Near the Cross", "No Night There" and "Beautiful Garden of Prayer".

The remains were forwarded to Midwest, Wyo., by Biglin's. Services were held Monday at the Church of the Open Bible at Midwest and burial was made at Douglas.

Mrs. Harkins died Thursday, May 29, in St. Anthony's hospital at O'Neill. She had been ill five weeks.

She was born February 20, 1874, at Rich Hill, Mo. She was married November 28, 1898 at Rich Hill to Oal M. Harkins, who died in 1945.

Survivors include: Daughters — Mrs. Cleona Wintermote of Chambers and Mrs. Zara Dye of Midwest; sons—Delve M. of Douglas and Orin M. of Grinnell, Kans.; 11 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren; Sister — Molly Loveland of Harrison, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Baker and two sons accompanied the remains to Wyoming.

Blue Grass Prospects Are Good
Bluegrass prospects in Holt county are considered good although most of the strippling is up to two weeks away.

The bluegrass is headed well but is generally thin. Prevailing price has not yet been determined.

Considerable alfalfa has been cut. Timely rains during the past seven days have been highly beneficial because rain was needed after successive days of wind.

O'Neill, Creighton, Lynch and Atkinson reported up to an inch of rain Thursday and Friday evenings. Orchard received .25 of an inch on Friday and an inch on Saturday morning.
