

Grote-Verzal Rites Read at San Diego

(Photo below).
ATKINSON—Miss Patricia Jeanne Grote, daughter of Mrs. Violet Grote of Auburn, Wash., became the bride of Gerald Verzal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Verzal of Atkinson, Saturday, May 10, at 10 o'clock in a double-ring ceremony.

Vows were recited in St. Mary's Catholic chapel at the United States naval hospital, San Diego, Calif., with Father Barras officiating.

The altar was decorated with pink gladioli and white stock. A reception followed in the chapel lounge.

The bride was given in marriage by Jack McDonald of Seattle, Wash. She selected a white chantilly lace-over-satin gown with chapel train. It was fashioned with scalloped neckline edged in seed pearls and iridescent sequins with sleeves tapering to a point over the wrist. Her double-fingered veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and sequins, with a deep edging of rosepoint lace. Her only jewelry was a pearl and rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias. The tradition of something old, something new was carried out.

Maid-of-honor, Miss Lily Rayna, was dressed in a green nylon-over-satin dress with matching hat and mitts. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Clinton Davis, the former Josephine Noziska, and Miss Condra Hull, who were dressed in pink gowns with matching pink hats and carrying cascade bouquets of yellow carnations.

Attending the bridegroom were Clinton Davis of Naper, and John Grote of Auburn, Wash., brother of the bride. They were formally dressed.

The bride's mother was dressed in a light blue gown with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue lace with white accessories. Each wore corsages of pink tea roses.

In the afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock a large reception was held in the Cabrillo room of the El Cortez hotel. The bride's table was beautifully decorated in her chosen colors of pink and white. The centerpiece was a three-tier wedding cake decorated with miniature bride and bridegroom. Pink carnations surrounded the base of the cake. Bouquets of pink carnations and candelabra completed the setting. Hors d'oeuvres, canapes and sea food were served.

The bride is a graduate of Auburn senior high school and the bridegroom is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school of Atkinson. At present the bride and bridegroom are serving with the navy and are stationed at the United States naval hospital, San Diego.

Regina Hynes Is June Bride in Church Rites

Baskets of pink gladioli appointed the altar of St. Patrick's church Tuesday morning, June 3, for the 10 a. m. nuptial mass and double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Regina Hynes, daughter of Mrs. Austin Hynes and the late Mr. Hynes of O'Neill, and James A. Tangeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Tangeman of Chambers.

Miss Sharlene Shoemaker, organist, played the wedding march and accompanied John Poutre, soloist, who sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus". As the bride placed her bouquet at the feet of the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mr. Poutre sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother".

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Donald Hynes, wore a gown of imported Italian silk organza over whispering tafeta. The molded waistline featured a scalloped neckline and elbow length sleeves outlined in the embroidered scallop. The slim sheath skirt was fashioned with a dramatic back sweep of billowing silk organza. Her double-veiled veil of imported silk illusion fell in a circular swing from a diamond shaped cap of chantilly lace covered with pearls. She carried an all white cascade bouquet of stephanotis centered with a cymidium corsage.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Gatz was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kay Tangeman, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Helen Hynes, cousin of the bride, Miss Carolyn Wilson and Miss Barbara Miller. They wore identical gowns of coral silk chiffon. The fitted bodices were styled with bateau necklines and cap sleeves that were caught with miniature velvet bows. The sheath skirts featured full back panels that formed a harem neckline. Their matching picture hats carried out the velvet bow trim. They carried bouquets of white poms with coral satin leaves on white velvet fans.

Arland Tangeman of Gurley was bestman for his brother. Attendants were John Lee Farrier, cousin of the bridegroom, Leonard Brown, Dale Wood, and Eugene Adams. Ushers were Bernard Gribble and Larry Lieswald. The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in white jackets and navy trousers. They wore white carnation boutonnières.

The mother of the bride chose a pink dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue dress with white accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

A breakfast for the wedding party and the immediate families was served at the Town House following the ceremony.

The bridal couple was honored at a reception from 2 until 4 p. m. at the Town House by 125 guests. The refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated in the bride's colors of coral and white.

Miss LaDonna McNulty cut the cake. Miss Karen Mahony served the punch, Mrs. R. J. Minton and Miss Cathryn Wilson poured. Miss Cecilia Bahl was in charge of the guest book. Miss Joanne Lansworth and Miss Margaret McElvain were in charge of the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy, class of 1956, and has been employed at the First National bank of O'Neill. The bridegroom is a graduate of Chambers high school and has attended Nebraska Wesleyan university where he was a member of Crescent fraternity. He has been teaching in the Public schools at Polk.

For traveling the bride chose a navy chemise with white accessories. After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in Boulder, Colo., where the bridegroom will attend summer classes at the University of Colorado.

Shirley J. Svoboda Weds Amelia Man

(Photo below).
CHAMBERS—Sunday, June 1, in the St. Paul's Lutheran church at Chambers, Miss Shirley Jean Svoboda became the bride of William Ira Liermann.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jame Svoboda, sr., of Burwell and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Liermann of Amelia.

The Altar was decorated with an arrangement of pink tinted gladioli, painted daisies, greenery and seven branch candelabra as Rev. William E. Raten performed the double-ring ceremony.

Norma Lee Esherman, friend of the bride, sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Wayne Lakin, cousin of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore the traditional white floor-length gown, self styled of Chantilly lace and net over satin. A lace jacket with long fitted sleeves forming bridal points at the wrist was worn over a strapless bodice of lace over pure white satin.

The voluminous skirt with full lace side panels featured net ruffles down the back which ended in a small train. A lace apron effect partially covered the front net-overskirt. A white satin cap highlighted by a self embroidered beaded design caught her fingertip veil of nylon tulle illusion.

She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid corsage and valley and pink streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Rosalee Svoboda served as her sister's maid-of-honor and Miss Margie Svoboda, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The maid-of-honor wore a deep rose princess style sheath dress of waltz-time tafeta with a silver-flecked white flowered net overskirt. The bodice featured a square frint neckline with narrow shoulder straps forming a bow at the base of the V-shaped back neck line.

The bridesmaid wore a light rose dress identical to the maid-of-honor's dress. Both attendants carried cascade bouquets of pink and white daisies set off by spray-embroidered leaves.

They wore white nylon gloves, and double strand chokers with matching earrings which were gifts from the bride. Their matching headbands featured white daisies in pink ruffles.

Lighting the candles were Herman Leirmann brother of the bridegroom, served as bestman, Tony Svoboda, brother of the bride, was groomsman. Ushers were Dale Svoboda, brother of the bride, and Larry Mosely, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Little Linda Svoboda, sister of the bride, was flowergirl. She carried a ribbon parasol filled with daisy petals. Her dress was of pink nylon with tiny white lace ruffles trimming the skirt and bodice. She wore a headband matching those the other attendants wore.

Alan Svoboda, brother of the bride, carried the rings on a cross-shaped pillow of white satin covered with net and edged with a satin ruffle.

The bride's mother chose a dress of grey and white dacon with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of pink roses.

Marilyn Mayberry had charge of the guestbook. Mrs. Dale Svoboda and Mrs. Larry Mosely, sisters of the bridegroom, and Kathleen Svoboda, sister of the bride, were in charge of gifts.

A reception for approximately 140 guests was held in the church parlors with Mrs. Tillie Waters, aunt of the bridegroom, as hostess. She also had charge of floral arrangements.

The serving table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated in white and pink by the bride's mother. The cake was placed on a round mirror surrounded with a white net ruffle and pink partially opened peonies.

Mrs. Jerold Van Winkle of Bassett, sister of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Clara Mayberry of Burwell poured coffee and Mrs. Jeanette Clement of Ord poured punch. Marilyn Svoboda, sister of the bride, and Betty Peters, cousin of the bride, served the guests.

Following the reception the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination.

Mrs. Liermann chose a coral dress and pale coral nylon duster as her traveling attire. She wore an orchid corsage and white accessories.

Mrs. Liermann is a graduate of the class of 1957 from Burwell high school.

Mr. Liermann was a Burwell graduate with the class of 1953. Since her graduation, Mrs. Liermann has been employed at the Hall county welfare office in Grand Island. Mr. Liermann is engaged in ranching with his father. The couple will live on a ranch near his parents ranch.

Newlyweds Off to West Indies

Saturday, May 24, at Guardian Angel church in New York City, Miss Catherine Theresa Condon daughter of Mrs. Edward Joseph Condon of London Terrace, and the late Mr. Condon, were united in marriage to John Andrew Still, son of Mr. and Mrs. Still, sr., of Bradford, Pa.

The double-ring 11 a. m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. John O'Donnell, pastor, assisted by Rev. Joseph Clancy before an altar decorated with gladioli.

Given in marriage by her uncle Navy Capt. Lawrence Silk (ret.) of New York City, the bride appeared in an Alencon eggshell lace gown over slipper satin.

It was ballerina length and featured full fashioned sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was caught by a crown of matching lace. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Ellen Condon, as her sister's maid-of-honor, appeared in a gown of delicate pink crepe chiffon with moss green velvet trim and a matching bow headpiece. Her bouquet was of mixed spring flowers.

Dr. George J. Still of Bradford, a brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. Ushers were Daniel W. Daly, jr., of Bradford and Eugene D. Wright of Dubuque, Ia., a brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother appeared in a dress of Buckingham blue with light blue accessories. Mrs. Eugene D. Wright, a sister of the bridegroom, wore beige lace over willow green faille and a matching hat.

A reception was held at Beekman Towers hotel, Beekman Place, for relatives and friends from New York City and Bradford.

Mrs. Still was graduated from St. Mary's academy in O'Neill and attended Fordham university. Mr. Still is a graduate of St. Bonaventure university and is an alumnus of Xavier university.

After a wedding trip to Nassau, B. W. I., the couple will reside at 57 Congress st., Bradford.

Mrs. Condon and her family are former residents of O'Neill.
