A wise man once said that a nation's greatness is merely the reflection of the greatness of its people. Ours is a prosperous nation... rich in material things... and rich, too, in the joy of giving. No one starves in our land. For our people will not knowingly permit it. No charitable cause in our land fails... no matter how large... no matter how small. Our people rally to the side of its champion... disregarding race, creed or color.

There is an unwritten law in our land... a golden rule... which has not the means nor the need for enforcement. Truly we do unto others as we would have others do unto us.
