Miss Joan Langan Weds Mr. Heggeler

Bouquets of gladioli and snapdragons decorated St. Bonaventure Catholic church Saturday, May 24 for the 9 a.m. wedding of Miss Joan Langan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Langan, formerly of O'Neill, and Lowell Henggeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Henggeler.

Rev. Roch Hettinger officiated at the double-ring ceremony. During the nuptial mass, Mrs. Howard Patrick sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus", also "On This Day" while the bride presented her bouquet at the Blessed Virgin's altar. She was accompanied at the organ by Louis Hambour, who also played the wedding march.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. Long tapered sleeves and a flaring Queen Anne collar highlighted the fitted bodice, and the full skirt of tulle and lace was completed at the back by a cascade of ruffles ending in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a queen's crown of lace trimmed with seed pearls. Pearl earrings completed her attire and she carried a purple orchid centered in white carnations and stephanotis.
