

Two Sessions for Happy Hollow Club —

Happy Hollow 4-H club recently met at the Chester Taylor home. The meeting was called to order by president, Doug Shrader.

Susan Taylor and Caroline Bergstrom gave the pledges to the American and 4-H flags. There was a discussion about 4-H camp to be held at Niobrara state park.

Gary Wettlaufer and Judy Gunter were guests. Vicki Miller and Tom Schmidt were absent. Lunch was served by the mothers.

Another meeting was held Tuesday, July 22, at the John Miller home.—By Owen Schmidt, news reporter.

FAIR & RODEO

The O'Neill National Bank joins in extending congratulations and best wishes to the 66th annual exposition at Chambers.

Fair time is a grand season of the year—particularly so when many of us can look back on a season in which Nature has been so generous.

Our congratulations, too, to the officers and directors whose untiring efforts the year-around make possible one of the finest little fairs in the country.
