Jeanette Kirkland Bride of Kansan

ATKINSON—Miss Jeanette Marlene Kirkland of Atchison, Kans., and Paul Wayne Masterson of Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., were united in marriage Saturday evening, August 2, at First Methodist church in Atchison.

Rev. Hugh Stoupe officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Kirkland of Atchison. The bridegroom is the son of Col. and Mrs. Donald I. Medley of Ft. Leavenworth.

Mr. Kirkland gave his daughter in marriage. She appeared in a white floor-length gown of imported pure silk peau de sole over heavy tulle with appliques of rosepoint handclipped Chantilly lace. The fitted empire style bodice had full three-quarter length sleeves and scalloped neckline. The rosepoint lace appliques formed a design over each shoulder. The bouffant skirt, worn over a large hoop petticoat, was of pure silk with appliques of the rosepoint Chantilly lace. The finger-tip veil of pure silk illusion was held in place by a jeweled royal crown of tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of roses, centered with a large orchid.

Miss Betty Lu Knecht of Atchison was maid-of-honor. She wore a shrimp ballerina length gown of pure silk organza over tulle. The gown was fashioned in princess lines with a flowing trapeze style panel in back. A large silk organza over tulle. The gown was fashioned in princess lines with a flowing trapeze style panel in back. A large silk organza bow and a large silk rose in shrimp trimmed the bodice. Bows and tulle held the trapeze panel on each side of the skirt. She wore a shrimp crown of tulle and braided silk with a shrimp tulle veil. Her fan-shaped bouquet was of dark shades of shrimp carnations.

Candelights were Misses Betty Jean Wehling, of Lancaster, Pa., and Joan Lee Snodgrass of Atchison.

David Shipman of Leavenworth was bestman. Ushers were Jack Fevury and James Kinney, both of Leavenworth.

A reception was held for 125 guests.

Mrs. L. L. Cochran, sister of the bride, presided. Miss Marilyn Norris and Mrs. Ada Cowley served. A four-tiered wedding cake was served.

After a wedding trip through southeast Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee, the couple will reside at Ft. Leavenworth.

The bride was graduated from Atkinson high school and attended Midland college where she was affiliated with Phi Omega Sorority. She has been employed as head teller and typist at the Commerce Acceptance Co., Atchison.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Cape Girardeau high school, Mo., was released in September from the army after serving three years. He is employed by the Eby Co., Leavenworth.

Letters to Editor

Inman, Nebr.
We enjoy your newspaper and your "Voice of The Frontier" reports. But don't forget the Inman "south valley" when it comes to rainfall.

Here's the rainfall log where we live:

July 1	.30
July 2	2.50
July 3	1.25
July 8	1.00
July 10	.50
July 12	.50
July 18	1.25
July 20	.90
July 25	1.00
July 27	2.50

This makes a total of 11.70 since July 1. In addition there have been smaller showers I haven't mentioned. There has been August rainfall, too.

Haying has been at nearly a standstill—poor going. The preceding is offered just for record.
