Leona Pettinger
Bride of Idahoan

ATKINSON—St. Joseph's Catholic church was the scene Saturday morning, August 9, of the wedding of Miss Leona Pettinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Pettinger, and Berton Hartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hartz, sr., of Boise, Ida.

Rev. Robert Morocco officiated at the nuptial mass and double ring ceremony at 10 o'clock. Servers were brother and cousins of the bride. Music was played by Sharon Moeller. Friends of the couple sang the mass hymns. "On This Day" was sung as the bride placed a bouquet at the feet of the Blessed Mother.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of Schiffler embroidered nylon tulle over duchess satin. The fitted buttoned-at-the-back bodice, cut to a point at the waist, featured an illusion neckline topped with a Queen Anne collar. Long sleeves were pointed at the wrists. The very bouffant skirt worn over hoop skirts and layers of net featured a redingote styled skirt in the front over permanent pleated nylon tulle. She wore pearls and matching earrings. The bride's fingertip veil fell from a crown of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations with a white rosary.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Rita Hoehne of O'Neill, and the bridesmaids, Miss Darlene Tasler and Mrs. Gene Ziska, wore matching gowns of ballerina length in the bride's colors. The gowns featured scooped necklines, sleeveless bodices with cummerbunds and matching headpieces. Their accessories were matching jewelry, gifts from the bride.

They carried a bouquet of daisies. Dolores Pettinger, sister of the bride, was flowergirl. She appeared in a white nylon dress with a flowered headpiece and carried a basket of rose pedals. Ricky Joplin, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Clayton Hartz, jr., served his brother as bestman. Groomsmen were Donald and Robert Pettinger.

Ushers were Leonard Troshynski of Omaha and Duane Pongratz of Emmet. The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark business suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pettinger chose a blue dress with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a lacy beige dress with blue accessories and also wore a pink carnation corsage.

Dinner for the wedding party and relatives was prepared and served at the Knights of Columbus hall in Atkinson at noon by friends of the families. Rev. R. J. Parr and Father Morocco were guests.

A reception was held from 2 until 3:30 for about one hundred guests. Miss Marilyn Wallinger was in charge of the guest book. Margie and Carol Ries and Claudette Raymer served at the refreshment table. Edith Pokorny poured and Mrs. A. J. O'Donnell, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Fred White, jr., Dolly and Gloria White assisted with the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of St.
