Shinkle-Wilson Vows August 9 in Sioux City Rite

(Photo below)
SIOUX CITY—Baskets of white gladioluses decorated Immaculate Conception Catholic church for the wedding Saturday afternoon, August 9, of Miss Mary Ann Shinkle and Terry S. Wilson.
Rev. John Brennan officiated. Mrs. Terence McElroy, organist, provided the music.
The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Bernice S. Shinkle and Mr. Wilson's parents are Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Wilson, all of Sioux City. The Wilsons are former residents of Stuart.

The bride's gown was fashioned of schiffli embroidered tulle over satin, the bodice styled with sabrine necklines. The bouffant, floorlength skirt of tulle was accented by deep points of embroidery with overskirt of tulle and tulle cummerbund with back pout. Her illusion veil was worn with a half-crown of nylon hair-braid and pearls. She carried a white satin prayer book with a white orchid showered with stephanotis.

The bride's three attendants wore dresses designed of jade green taffeta, with draped surplice bodices and bouffant, ballerina-length, lantern-shaped skirt with front bows. They wore matching scalloped picture hats, and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations.
Dr. F. W. Wilson was bestman for his brother.

A reception was held in Jones hall on Morningside college campus.
Mr. Wilson and his bride will reside at O'Neill when they return from a wedding trip through Colorado. Mr. Wilson will teach English and science in the O'Neill high school for the coming term.

Carol Gesiriech Bride at Newport

NEWPORT — Carol Gesiriech became the bride of Neil Edmunds of St. Edward in a double-ring ceremony at the Methodist church in Newport at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, August 9.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon organza over taffeta. The snug fitting bodice featured a portrait neckline outlined with scallops of the embroidered nylon organza and cap sleeves edged with the scallops. Ballet blue satin ribbon drawn through eyelet ended in a tailored bow in front of the bodice. The bouffant skirt of embroidered nylon repeated the trim of ribbon drawn through eyelets, ending in flat bows and swept into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was caught by a jeweled crown.
Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses and carnations.
Mrs. Milton Owens of Carroll, sister of the bride, acted as matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Ella Mann of Electra, Tex., and Mrs. Robert Gilg of Newport. They wore matching ballerina frocks of floral blue print. They carried bined with blue. The bodice of the print featured scoop necklines and wide fitted cummerbunds of the blue, topping harem skirts of the floral blue print. They carried white carnation bouquets.
The candlelighters were Trudy Keller and Carol Stewart of Newport. Cynthia Pape of Mitchell, S. D., niece of the bride, was flower girl. They wore matching dresses of white cotton satin featuring the scoop necklines and harem skirts with wide cummerbunds of romance blue at the waist. The flower girl carried a blue carnation nosegay.
Bestman was Lyle Reed of St. Edward. Ushers were Kingsley Miner of Sac City, Ia., and Wayne Gesiriech of Chambers. John Mak of Bovey, Minn., nephew of the bride, served the bridegroom cake.
The bride's mother chose a blue-black silk chiffon print with white accessories. The bridegroom's aunt of Marion, Ia., wore a fall plaid dress. Both wore corsages of white carnations.
Jan Johnson of Merville, Ia., sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Organist was Sally Burt of Bassett.
Mona Hansen of Oakland and Karleen Sanders of Omaha were in charge of the gifts.
Mrs. Wayne Gesiriech of Chambers, Mrs. Rollin Gesiriech of St. Louis, Mo., Sally Schreiner of Wayne and Jo Ann Lanz of Bassett served the refreshments at a reception held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony.
Joann Anderson of West Point was in charge of the guest book. The bride is a graduate of Rock county high school and attended Wayne State teachers college at Wayne. The bridegroom is a graduate of Wayne State Teachers college. After a honeymoon the couple will make their home in Hartington where they will both teach in the city schools.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schrieber and Sally of Wayne; Mrs. Harold Anderson and Joan of West Point, Miss Mona Hansen of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Axley, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Axley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vargason and Debbie of Marion, Ia.; Mrs. Bill Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Zangar Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Baker of St. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dorsey and Charles, Mrs. Bud Wideland of Lincoln, Mrs. Pat Whitcomb and Cindy of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Goodman, Judy Stewart, Jack Merker, Karleen Sanders of Omaha, Bob Canten and Ray Merrell of St. Edward; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gesiriech of Chambers; Mr. and Mrs. W.
