

Winside Fizzles Out for Opener

Coach Don Templemeyer's St. Mary's academy Cardinals are searching for a foe with whom to open the 1958 eight-man grid campaign.

Winside, starting eight-man ball this year, had been tentatively scheduled for the opener at Winside next Friday—September 12. But the Wayne countyans sent word to O'Neill this week saying they couldn't be ready for the Hilltoppers' experienced outfit. Templemeyer is now looking elsewhere for an opening foe.

Schedule:

September 19—At Verdigris; 26—Butte, here.

October 3—Niobrara, here, 3 p.m.; 10—open; 17—Greeley Sacred Heart, here; 22—Naper, here; 27—Spencer, here; 30—At Spaulding academy.

November 7—At Lynch.

Corrine Murphy Bride of Georgian

St. Patrick's church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Corrine Murphy and Barney W. Poss on Saturday August 31. Rev. Robert Duffy officiated at the 10 o'clock double-ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy of O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. Barney V. Poss of Lincoln, Ga.

Bouquets of vari-colored flowers decorated the altar and large baskets of yellow mums and fern were placed on the altar railing.

Miss Alvora Ramm, organist, accompanied Miss Sharon Murray, who sang "Mother Beloved," "Ave Maria" and "On This Day" as the bride placed a bouquet before the Blessed Virgin altar.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a chapel length gown of white chantilly lace over net fashioned with a fitted bodice and featuring a scalloped neckline edged with seed pearls and iridescent sequins and a three tier skirt. Her finger tip veil of illusion was trimmed with matching lace and was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a fan bouquet of red roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Lonnie Langan, was maid-of-honor and Miss Patricia Brady of Omaha was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of Dior blue crystaline in ballerina length. A scalloped hemline was formed by the tucking up of the skirt at intervals with tiny bows of velvet. They wore matching headbands of taffeta with short veils and carried bouquets of blue and white feathered carnations.

The flower girl was Patty Murphy of Sioux City, Ia., niece of the bride. She wore a floor-length gown of blue and carried a bouquet of white daisies. Richard Bosh was ringbearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Robert Bauerkemper of Omaha was bestman and Harney Simi of Omaha and Leo Laible of O'Neill were ushers. The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark suits with white carnation boutonnières.

Following the service a breakfast for 19 guests was given by the bride's parents at the Town House. A reception was held from 2 until 4 at the home of the bride. The bride's table was decorated with a three tier white wedding cake trimmed with blue roses, white bells and blue slippers. A miniature bride and bridegroom under an arch graced the top. Matching blue candles in candelabra were placed on each side.

Miss Barbara Hill of Omaha registered the guests. Mrs. Leo Laible served coffee and Catherine Gregerson of Omaha served punch. The wedding cake was cut and served by Miss Barbara McCarthy. Servers were Misses Kay McCarthy, LaDonna McNulty and Joanne Lansworth.

Mrs. Poss was graduated from St. Mary's academy and the Commercial Extension school in Omaha and is now employed as a clerk-typist for Mutual.

Mr. Poss is a graduate of Lincoln high school of Lincoln, Ga., and is an electronic specialist in the air force. He is stationed at Offutt air base, Omaha.

For a wedding trip to the home of the bridegroom's parents in Georgia, the bride wore a black sheath dress trimmed at the neckline with white chiffon, which draped in the back almost to the hemline. She wore a corsage of red roses.

The couple will reside at 120 South 33d street in Omaha.

Couple Exchanges Vows at Stuart

STUART—The wedding of Miss Karen Margaret Obermire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Obermire of Stuart, and Bruce Duane Hanshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren E. Hansken of Lincoln, took place Saturday, August 30 at 3:30 o'clock at St. Boniface Catholic church. Rev. A. J. Paschang performed the double ring ceremony.

Sr. M. Vera was organist.

The bride appeared in a gown which she designed featuring a bodice of rosepointed lace and a voluminous floor-length skirt of white faille. Long sleeves tapered to bridal points at the wrists and a draped Italian neckline dipped to a V in the back above the tiny lace covered buttons. The bodice front continued into a draped pannier which was caught up in the back by a puffed bustle. Lace streamers of pink and white extended from the bustle to the hem of her gown. The gown was made by the bride's mother and her sister, Nola.

She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white feathered carnations and baby's breath interspersed with puffs of pink tulle and tied with flower-accented satin streamers. Her white pearl rosary was made by her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Henning of Atkinson.

Miss Nola A. Obermire of Lincoln was maid of honor and Mrs. Janet Crisler of Lincoln and Mrs. Janet Crisler of Lincoln and Mrs. Karen Reyne of Norfolk were brides matrons. They wore street length frocks of pink silk with bouffant skirts, fitted bodices with V necklines and cowl draped backs and brown velvet sashes. Matching crowns held their whisper length veils.

The flower girl, Doris Kaup, wore a similar dress of pink silk and carried a ribbon trimmed basket of rose petals.

Great Scott of Lincoln was the ring bearer.

Harold Crisler of Lincoln was bestman and the groomsmen were Joe Obermire of Manchester, Ia., and James B. Scott of Lincoln. The ushers were Robert Henning of Atkinson and Francis Obermire.

A reception for 100 guests was given at the home of the bride's parents. Decorations and a three tier rectangular wedding cake were in the bride's chosen colors of pink and brown. The cake was cut by Mrs. W. G. Obermire, aunt of the bride. Serving were Mesdames Charles Ankney, Clara D. Pettjohn and S. E. Timmermans assisted by Misses Carol Hoffman, Marlene Kaup, Mary Minnie and Carolyn Schaaf.

Mrs. Hanshaw is a graduate of the Stuart high school and the Lincoln School of Commerce and is employed as secretary by the state board of education.

Mr. Hanshaw was graduated from Northeast high in Lincoln and also the school of commerce. He is employed as a salesman for the Atlas company.

After a trip to the Black Hills he couple will reside in Lincoln.
