Mary Agatha Ryan, Jerry E. McGinn Exchange Vows

White vases of white and lavender asters appointed the altar of St. Patrick's Catholic church for the wedding uniting in marriage Miss Mary Agatha Ryan, daughter of Neil B. Ryan of O'Neill and Jerry Emmet McGinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGinn of O'Neill.

Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church, officiated at the 10 a.m. double-ring ceremony on Monday, September 1. A nuptial mass followed the wedding ceremony.

Mike Hammond and Terry Tomjack were acolytes. Soloists were Wayne Robertson of Norfolk who sang "Ave Maria" and Miss Bonnie Barival of O'Neill who sang "Mother Beloved" and "Panis Angelicus". Miss Cecelia Ann Arbuthnot of O'Neill accompanied them on the organ.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of Peau De Soie fashioned with a fitted bodice and long tapering sleeves. The yoke of chantilly lace featured a Sabrina neckline with tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bouffant skirt with a brush train was accented with a large bow in the center of the back.

She carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught by a crown trimmed in tink seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and silver crystal rosary, a gift of the bridegroom.

Jude K. Ryan of O'Neill was maid of honor for her sister and Miss Eunice Van Horn of O'Neill and Miss Judy Royal of Kansas City, Mo., were bridesmaids. They were gowned in ballerina length dresses of lavender crystallite with a chiffon cummerbund of a deeper shade of lavender. They wore net hats with scattered lilies-of-the-valley and carried bouquets of baby pink asters.

Ushering were James Ryan of Ft. Wayne, Ind., brother of the bride, and Jack McGinn of O'Neill, brother of the bridegroom. James McGinn acted as best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Paul Determan of Norfolk and Gerald Peschal also of Norfolk.

The brides honorary mother, Mrs. Bonnie Waldo, wore a pink crystallite dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A dinner at the Ryan home for 25 guests followed the wedding ceremony.

A reception, given by the bride's father, was held at 124 S. 4th St. for 125 guests with Mrs. Matt Beha, Mrs. Ralph Van Horn, Mrs. Sheil and Mrs. Snider in charge. The wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Matt Beha, decorated the reception table.
