

Lynch News

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dehl of Soda Springs, Colo., spent the weekend with the former's sister, Mrs. Dennis Kube, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Turk, Allen and Donnie of Gross called at the Frank Weeder home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Kube and family attended the county fair at Bloomfield Sunday, August 24.

Frank Matejcek visited at Albert Kalkowski's Monday, August 25.

Mrs. Elta Soulek and children returned here after spending the summer in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed May and Duane of Missouri were Sunday dinner guests at the Dwight Micanek home.

Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Moody and family visited at Henry Vornasek's near Verdell Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Elsas and Ainsworth spent the weekend here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stewart spent Tuesday evening, August 26, at the Dwight Micanek home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cizek and Marcella Moore spent Tuesday and Wednesday, August 26-27, with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Haselhorst.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sixta and Roger also Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cizek and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cizek and Joey were Sunday dinner guests at the Emil Micanek home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stewart and sons returned Tuesday, August 26, from a trip through the Black Hills. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Farran at Custer, S.D., while away.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Davy and family of Merna accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davy spent a week's vacation in Minnesota visiting friends and relatives and fishing at the lakes. They returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Spencer of Texarkana, Tex., and the latter's mother, Mrs. Ben Gardner visited Mrs. Gladys Spencer during the August 23-24 weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Nolan spent Sunday evening at the Clarence Koland home.

Sally Shaw returned home from Phoenix, Ariz., where she had had employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heiser returned home from Omaha last Saturday where Herman had a physical checkup.

Mrs. Veldon Lee accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Holtz to Sioux City Friday where she underwent a physical checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Spencer and Mrs. Ben Gardner of Texarkana, Tex., visited Mrs. Gladys Spencer during the August 23-24 weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kube and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kube of Crofton were Wednesday, August 27, dinner guests at the Denis Kube home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vornasek and family and Mrs. Annie Vornasek of Gregory, S.D., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kopecky and family of Spencer were last Sunday visitors at the Dwight Micanek home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kalkowski visited Mrs. Tillie Novak at Bristow Wednesday evening, August 27.

Mrs. Robert Courtney visited Mrs. Dwight Micanek Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorie Micanek and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson were Friday visitors at the Beryl Moody home.

Rev. Willard Lloyd and family arrived Monday from Salina, Kan. Reverend Lloyd is the new Wesleyan Methodist minister here.

Mrs. Leo Blitske and Lavina Pele of Spencer visited at the Frank Weeder home Friday.

Tuesday 6 o'clock dinner guests at the Leslie Stewart home were Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Dickey of O'Neill also Mr. and Mrs. Lorie Micanek and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ducker and family.

Mrs. Gladys Spencer left Friday for Denver Colo., for a few weeks' visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davy motored there with her and spent the weekend there.

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

kana, Tex., also Mrs. Gladys Spencer spent Saturday afternoon at the Bill Stauffer home and at the Fred Spencer home Saturday evening and at Alfred Davy's for a 8 p.m. supper.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Meyers of the Wesleyan Methodist church left Sunday for North Platte where Reverend Meyers has a new pastorate.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Meuller and family returned home Saturday from a week's visit with relatives in Beach, N.D.

The Rev. Willard Lloyd and family of Salina, Kan., came Monday and Reverend Lloyd will be the new pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church here.

The Norris Bjornsen family left for their home in California after a 10-day visit here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Brockmeier spent the weekend in Omaha visiting the former's sister who had been in an automobile accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stewart attended the play of baseball game at O'Neill. The Lynch Pee Wee won second in the all star tournament.

Mrs. Don Allen, Jill and Judd visited with Mrs. Albert Kalkowski Wednesday afternoon.

Frank Svoboda, sr., of David City spent the past week at the Frank Svoboda home south east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tomer and family spent last weekend with relatives in Scottsbluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weeder and family also Carl Kayl of Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Blitke and family, Larry and Lyle Koenig of Wisner were Sunday supper guests at the Ray Kayl home near Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Liska of Niobrara visited at the Dwight Micanek home Thursday.

Mrs. Beryl Moody called at the C. L. Haselhorst home Tuesday evening.

The Wesleyan Methodist Circle from Sunshine Bottom met with Mrs. Birger Thursday afternoon. They presented Mrs. Paul Meyers, the minister's wife, with a gift.

The Haselhorst family reunion which is an annual affair was held in the Niobrara state park Sunday. Relatives from Osmond, Randolph, Lynch, Butte, Verdell and O'Neill numbering about sixty were present.

Harlene Holtz and Abbie Gray left Tuesday for Chadron where they plan to teach this coming year.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Meyers left Sunday for North Platte where Reverend Meyers will be pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church there.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kube and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kube of Crofton were Wednesday, August 27, dinner guests at the Denis Kube home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vornasek and family and Mrs. Annie Vornasek of Gregory, S.D., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kopecky and family of Spencer were last Sunday visitors at the Dwight Micanek home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kalkowski visited Mrs. Tillie Novak at Bristow Wednesday evening, August 27.

Mrs. Robert Courtney visited Mrs. Dwight Micanek Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorie Micanek and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson were Friday visitors at the Beryl Moody home.

Rev. Willard Lloyd and family arrived Monday from Salina, Kan. Reverend Lloyd is the new Wesleyan Methodist minister here.

Mrs. Leo Blitske and Lavina Pele of Spencer visited at the Frank Weeder home Friday.

Tuesday 6 o'clock dinner guests at the Leslie Stewart home were Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Dickey of O'Neill also Mr. and Mrs. Lorie Micanek and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ducker and family.

Mrs. Gladys Spencer left Friday for Denver Colo., for a few weeks' visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davy motored there with her and spent the weekend there.

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

Try Frontier want ads for quick results!

The John R. Hollenbecks . . . to reside in Kentucky.

Conita J. Bazelman, John R. Hollenbeck in August Nuptials

At a 9:30 mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill on Saturday, August 23, Miss Conita J. Bazelman of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Bazelman of O'Neill, was united in marriage to Sp-3 John R. (Jack) Hollenbeck of Ft. Campbell, Ky., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hollenbeck.

Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with garden cut flowers. Patrick Carr and James Sullivan were acolytes.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown fashioned of French lace and nylon net over tulle. It featured a tight fitting bodice topped with cap sleeves and a scalloped neckline of French lace dotted with sequins. The bouffant skirt featured panels of French lace and nylon net over tiers of ruffles and was worn over wide spreading hoops. She wore matching gauntlets. A small hat held her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a lace covered prayer book and a cascade bouquet of white feathered carnations. She wore her grandmother's pearl necklace and a sweetheart bracelet given to her by Mrs. John Melvin. She carried out the old tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe.

Miss Caroline Schoene of Kansas City was maid of honor. Miss Eunice Van Horn of O'Neill and Miss Janice Brown of Omaha were bridesmaids. All wore matching dresses of blue and white nylon screen lace over tulle and the midriff and full skirts. They wore white hats and gloves and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations. Debby Clements, cousin of the bride, and Cathy Hollenbeck, niece of the groom, were flower girls. They wore white play length nylon dresses featuring a tucked bodice trimmed with lace and rhinestone buttons and large sash bows. They carried baskets of white carnations resting on large blue bows. The ring bearer was John Hildreth, cousin of the bride. He was dressed in a blue suit and carried the rings on a satin pillow trimmed with lace.

Serving as Mr. Hollenbeck's best man was Larry Fox of O'Neill. His attendants were Beryl Bazelman, cousin of the bride, and Tom Langan, both of O'Neill. The bridegroom and his attendants wore blue shades of business suits and carnation boutonniere. Ushers were Ronnie Hollenbeck, nephew of the bridegroom and Steve and Roy Fox of Emmet. They wore dressed in white shirts and dark trousers and wore Usher cards made by Sister Maxine.

The bride's mother chose a yellow linen dress with yellow and white accessories. Mrs. Wayne Fox wore a powder blue linen dress with white accessories. Mrs. Harry Hollenbeck wore a navy linen dress with navy and white accessories. Mrs. R. R. Reid, grandmother of the bride, wore a lavender print dress with white accessories. All wore corsages of white carnations.

Miss Sharlene Shoemaker of O'Neill accompanied Miss Bonnie Knapp who sang "Ave Maria," "Pans Angelicus," "O Lord I am not worthy" and "On This Day" as the bride placed flowers before the altar of the Blessed Mother.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Town House for about 150 guests. Mrs. Frank Reed of Lincoln, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake baked by Mrs. Homer Ernst. The four-tier cake was decorated with wedding bells, white roses and blue forget-me-nots and topped with a cross and open prayer book decorated with blue forget-me-nots on one side and the names "Connie and Jack" on the other. Miss Hilda Desieve of Atkinson poured. Mrs. Lyle Trease of Lincoln and Mrs. Ben Bazelman of Omaha, cousins of the bride, and Miss Donna Henrich of Omaha, had charge of the gift table. Miss Delores Serin of Omaha took care of the guest book. The Misses Kay McCarthy, Ellen Donohoe, Jean Schoene, Lorna Rosencruss, Mrs. Duane Lindenberg and Mrs. David Maughan served.

Mrs. Hollenbeck is a graduate of St. Mary's academy at O'Neill and of the Commercial Extension School of Commerce at Omaha. Since March she has been employed with the Northern Natural Gas Company in Omaha. Mr. Hollenbeck is a graduate of the O'Neill high school. He is in the 101st Airborne Division of the Armed Service and is now stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

The bride chose a blue and white linen-like rayon dress with blue and white accessories for travel. After a short wedding trip they will leave for Ft. Campbell, Ky., where they will make their home while he is in the service.

Out of town guests were from Lincoln, Orchard, Omaha, Ewing, Brunswick, Page, Atkinson, Tekamah, Elgin, Amelia, Emmet, Burwell, Bristol, Pilger, Stanton, Sargent, Tilden, Dwight, Haskins, Chambers, Spencer, Kansas City, Kans., and Galva, Ia.

O'Neill News

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thorin of Cheyenne Wyo., arrived Saturday to visit relatives in the Chambers, O'Neill and Ewing localities.

Their 14-year-old twin sons, Richard and Ronald who had been spending the summer with their grandparents, Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Smith near Ewing, returned to Wyoming with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Donohoe of Minden spent the weekend with relatives here. Mr. Donohoe is assistant manager of the J. M. McDonald store there. Mrs. Donohoe has contracted to teach in a rural school near Minden.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Towle of Norfolk and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riddell of Denver, Colo., were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Minton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morrow were weekend guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Donohoe of Minden.

Mrs. Carolyn Moseman of Omaha spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moseman. Miss Marion left on Monday to attend Commercial Extension school in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Rynold Kaczor of Spencer were Monday, August 23, guests of Mrs. Minnie Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mumm attended the Knox county fair in Bloomfield Sunday, August 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Littell and baby with Mrs. Don Littell of Chadron recently visited with Mr. and Mrs. William McKinlay.

Monuments of lasting beauty made by skilled craftsmen of the J. F. Bloom Co., monuments from the factory to the consumer.—Emmet Crabb, O'Neill.

Merry mix club met Tuesday, August 26 with Mrs. H. L. Lindberg at a 1:20 dessert luncheon. High scores went to Mrs. Arlo Hiatt and Mrs. Paul Shierk. Mrs. Hiatt was 2 guest.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osenbaugh and family of Burwell were Sunday, August 24 guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Osenbaugh.

Mrs. Robert Clements and family departed Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gurule, in Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McLeish and boys of Correctionville, Ia., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McLeish.

Miss Ella Mae Paul Bride of Missourian

At a candlelight ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Friday, August 23, at the Assembly of God church, Miss Ella Mae Paul and James Teuber of Springfield, Mo., were united in marriage. Miss Paul is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Paul of the Assembly of God church here.

Mr. Teuber is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Teuber of Springfield.

The fathers of the couple performed the double-ring ceremony before two large baskets of pink carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown with a bouffant skirt of nylon illusion over satin with a chapel train. It was trimmed with lace, medallions, pearls and rhinestones. The lace bodice featured a high neckline outlined with sequins. It had long tapered sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a small hat of matching lace trimmed with pearls. She wore pearls, which were a gift from the bridegroom. She carried removable corsage of pink sweetheart roses on a tulle.

Miss Jane Peters of McCook was maid-of-honor. The Misses Eunice Teuber of Springfield, a sister of the bridegroom, and Shirley Barry of Minatare, were bridesmaids. They appeared in identical brocade satin gowns with bouffant skirts, V-necklines and short sleeves. Miss Peter's gown was pastel green and the others were pastel pink. They carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and wore rhinestone necklaces which were gifts from the bride. They wore small hats and matching veils.

Miss Jane Peters of McCook was maid-of-honor. The Misses Eunice Teuber of Springfield, a sister of the bridegroom, and Shirley Barry of Minatare, were bridesmaids. They appeared in identical brocade satin gowns with bouffant skirts, V-necklines and short sleeves. Miss Peter's gown was pastel green and the others were pastel pink. They carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and wore rhinestone necklaces which were gifts from the bride. They wore small hats and matching veils.

Candlelighters were Miss Ann Teuber of Springfield, a sister of the bridegroom, and Jerry Brockman of Emmet, Miss Teuber wore a green brocade gown like the other attendants. She wore a wristlet of pink carnations.

Vicki Wetzel of Verdigris was flower girl. Her brother, James, was ring bearer. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wetzel. Little Vicki was dressed like a miniature bride with a gown styled like the bride's in white. She carried a basket of garden flowers.

Best man was Gary Gardner of Springfield. Ushers were William Jay of Minatare, Howard Kauffman of Drummond, Tenn., Kenneth Perkins of Springfield, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gary Dickinson of Grand Island. All the men attendants, including the ring bearer, wore white jackets and dark trousers.

Mrs. Roscoe Leach of Grand Island played the traditional wedding music on the organ and accompanied her husband, Reverend Leach, who sang "Oh Promise Me" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Mrs. Paul, the bride's mother, wore a two-piece beige suit with blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and roses. Mrs. Teuber wore a beige dress with blue accessories and had a corsage like that of the bride's mother.

A reception followed in the Methodist church basement. The decorations were pink and green. Taking charge of the organ and piano were Mrs. Marion Rosenkrans, Miss Ruth Young and Miss Vermetta Krogh. Miss Judy Cathers of St. Petersburg, Fla., had charge of the guest book. A great aunt of the bride, Mrs. William Hoffman of Akron, Ia., cut the cake. Serving were Mrs. Delbert Rouse.

Miss Ella Mae Paul and James Teuber of Springfield, Mo., were united in marriage. Miss Paul is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Paul of the Assembly of God church here.

Mr. Teuber is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Teuber of Springfield.

The fathers of the couple performed the double-ring ceremony before two large baskets of pink carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown with a bouffant skirt of nylon illusion over satin with a chapel train. It was trimmed with lace, medallions, pearls and rhinestones. The lace bodice featured a high neckline outlined with sequins. It had long tapered sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a small hat of matching lace trimmed with pearls. She wore pearls, which were a gift from the bridegroom. She carried removable corsage of pink sweetheart roses on a tulle.

Miss Jane Peters of McCook was maid-of-honor. The Misses Eunice Teuber of Springfield, a sister of the bridegroom, and Shirley Barry of Minatare, were bridesmaids. They appeared in identical brocade satin gowns with bouffant skirts, V-necklines and short sleeves. Miss Peter's gown was pastel green and the others were pastel pink. They carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and wore rhinestone necklaces which were gifts from the bride. They wore small hats and matching veils.

Candlelighters were Miss Ann Teuber of Springfield, a sister of the bridegroom, and Jerry Brockman of Emmet, Miss Teuber wore a green brocade gown like the other attendants. She wore a wristlet of pink carnations.

Vicki Wetzel of Verdigris was flower girl. Her brother, James, was ring bearer. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wetzel. Little Vicki was dressed like a miniature bride with a gown styled like the bride's in white. She carried a basket of garden flowers.

Best man was Gary Gardner of Springfield. Ushers were William Jay of Minatare, Howard Kauffman of Drummond, Tenn., Kenneth Perkins of Springfield, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gary Dickinson of Grand Island. All the men attendants, including the ring bearer, wore white jackets and dark trousers.

Mrs. Roscoe Leach of Grand Island played the traditional wedding music on the organ and accompanied her husband, Reverend Leach, who sang "Oh Promise Me" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Mrs. Paul, the bride's mother, wore a two-piece beige suit with blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and roses. Mrs. Teuber wore a beige dress with blue accessories and had a corsage like that of the bride's mother.

A reception followed in the Methodist church basement. The decorations were pink and green. Taking charge of the organ and piano were Mrs. Marion Rosenkrans, Miss Ruth Young and Miss Vermetta Krogh. Miss Judy Cathers of St. Petersburg, Fla., had charge of the guest book. A great aunt of the bride, Mrs. William Hoffman of Akron, Ia., cut the cake. Serving were Mrs. Delbert Rouse.

Miss Ella Mae Paul and James Teuber of Springfield, Mo., were united in marriage. Miss Paul is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Paul of the Assembly of God church here.

Mr. Teuber is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Teuber of Springfield.

The fathers of the couple performed the double-ring ceremony before two large baskets of pink carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown with a bouffant skirt of nylon illusion over satin with a chapel train. It was trimmed with lace, medallions, pearls and rhinestones. The lace bodice featured a high neckline outlined with sequins. It had long tapered sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a small hat of matching lace trimmed with pearls. She wore pearls, which were a gift from the bridegroom. She carried removable corsage of pink sweetheart roses on a tulle.

Miss Jane Peters of McCook was maid-of-honor. The Misses Eunice Teuber of Springfield, a sister of the bridegroom, and Shirley Barry of Minatare, were bridesmaids. They appeared in identical brocade satin gowns with bouffant skirts, V-necklines and short sleeves. Miss Peter's gown was pastel green and the others were pastel pink. They carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and wore rhinestone necklaces which were gifts from the bride. They wore small hats and matching veils.

Candlelighters were Miss Ann Teuber of Springfield, a sister of the bridegroom, and Jerry Brockman of Emmet, Miss Teuber wore a green brocade gown like the other attendants. She wore a wristlet of pink carnations.

Vicki Wetzel of Verdigris was flower girl. Her brother, James, was ring bearer. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wetzel. Little Vicki was dressed like a miniature bride with a gown styled like the bride's in white. She carried a basket of garden flowers.

Best man was Gary Gardner of Springfield. Ushers were William Jay of Minatare, Howard Kauffman of Drummond, Tenn., Kenneth Perkins of Springfield, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gary Dickinson of Grand Island. All the men attendants, including the ring bearer, wore white jackets and dark trousers.

Mrs. Roscoe Leach of Grand Island played the traditional wedding music on the organ and accompanied her husband, Reverend Leach, who sang "Oh Promise Me" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Mrs. Paul, the bride's mother, wore a two-piece beige suit with blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and roses. Mrs. Teuber wore a beige dress with blue accessories and had a corsage like that of the bride's mother.

A reception followed in the Methodist church basement. The decorations were pink and green. Taking charge of the organ and piano were Mrs. Marion Rosenkrans, Miss Ruth Young and Miss Vermetta Krogh. Miss Judy Cathers of St. Petersburg, Fla., had charge of the guest book. A great aunt of the bride, Mrs. William Hoffman of Akron, Ia., cut the cake. Serving were Mrs. Delbert Rouse.

Mr. and Mrs. James Paul Teuber . . . leaving the altar at the Assembly of God following candlelight nuptials.—The Frontier Photo

Mrs. Allen Walters and Mrs. Charles Fox were Miss Lorna Marcelus of Lincoln, Mrs. Bill Kelly, Gary and Janelle Belzer and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fox and family of Emmet.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox were Miss Lorna Marcelus of Lincoln, Mrs. Bill Kelly, Gary and Janelle Belzer and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fox and family of Emmet.

Mrs. Lou Ann Fritton of St. Catherine's school of nursing in Omaha was a guest from Friday night until Tuesday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fritton.

Mrs. Teuber is a graduate of Mitchell high school, class of 1936, and completed a year at Evansville college. She will be employed at the college in an office.

Mr. Teuber is a graduate of Central high school in Springfield, class of 1934, and is a junior student at Evansville college, majoring in accounting.

Admitted: Mrs. Joe Fuchtmann of Creighton, Charles Chochlousek of Verdigris, Mrs. Warren Witt of Creighton, Mike Wagner of Creighton, Dobby Blair of Creighton, Timothy Knuth of Royal, Mrs. Elsie Peklo of Niobrara.

Dismissed: Mrs. Fred Gatz, daughter of Niobrara, Mrs. Carl Ganz and daughter if Winneton, Mrs. Melvin Kotrous and daughter of Ordridge, Adolph Hanefeldt of Center, Sheryl Skokan of Verdigris, Mrs. Lloyd Forsell and daughter of Neligh, Charles Chochlousek of Verdigris, Mike Wagner of Creighton, Diana Blair of Creighton, Debby Blair of Creighton, Timothy Knuth of Royal.

Dismissed: Mrs. Fred Gatz, daughter of Niobrara, Mrs. Carl Ganz and daughter if Winneton, Mrs. Melvin Kotrous and daughter of Ordridge, Adolph Hanefeldt of Center, Sheryl Skokan of Verdigris, Mrs. Lloyd Forsell and daughter of Neligh, Charles Chochlousek of Verdigris, Mike Wagner of Creighton, Diana Blair of Creighton, Debby