Anita G. Brookhouser Weds Washingtonian

Miss Anita Gayle Brookhouser, became the bride of Richard Conrad EnEarl of Tacoma, Wash., Wednesday, August 20, at a four o'clock ceremony at the University Place Presbyterian church of Tacoma.

The nuptial lines were read by Rev. Russell Alsgaard before the altar flanked with baskets of gladiolus.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brookhouser of Venus, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn EnEarl of Tacoma.

Organ music was played during the ceremony by the church organist.

The bride escorted by her father, appeared in a white ballerina length gown with a fitted bodice and a full bouffant skirt. She wore a small sequined clip hat, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Mrs. John DeFillippi of Tacoma was matron-of-honor. She appeared in pastel pink gown made in princess style with round neckline and bow trim. She wore a small feather hat.

Lee Mecumber was the bridegroom's attendant. Both Mr. EnEarl and his attendant wore dark suits.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The pink and white theme was carried out in small roses on the tables surrounding the three-tier wedding cake flanked by pink lighted tapers. A miniature bride and bridegroom topped the cake.

Mrs. Conard Juggert, grandmother of the bridegroom and Mrs. Chester Juggert, an aunt, presided at the punch bowl and coffee table.

Mrs. Ellis Evans cut and served the cake. Miss Sharon EnEarl, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Harry Salt and Mrs. Arthur Monack were in charge of the gifts.

At 8 o'clock that evening, a wedding supper was served at Stove's Gay Nineties.

Mrs. Brookhouser choose a blue aqua scroll dress for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. EnEarl, the bridegroom's mother, wore an aqua print with white trim.

Both wore pink corsages.

Mrs. EnEarl is a Verdigré high school graduate. She attended school at Brunswick and Vacaville, Calif., and has been employed at Tacoma for the past two years by Albertsons Stores Co.

Mr. EnEarl is a graduate of Tacoma high school. He served in the navy and is now affiliated in his father's jewelry store.

The EnEarls are making their home at 2215 E. Blvd., Day Island, Tacoma.
