Sorensen-Stewart Rites Solemnized in Home Rite

PAGE—The living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Sorensen was prettily decorated with arrangements of seasonal fall flowers for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Norma Jean Sorensen, and Richard Eugene Stewart, ETSN.
 Rev. Litsen Mewman, pastor of the Page Methodist church, officiated at a 2 o'clock rite Sunday, September 21.
 Mrs. Mewman played the Lohengrin "Wedding March" as the bridal party took their places before a background of gold broad-edged drapery.
 The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a wedding gown of white cotton lace over pastel blue net and taffeta. The bodice featured a V neckline with a draped bodice having ball trim edging placed in parallel arrangement giving a wide belted effect. The bouffant skirt was a street-length model. The bride wore a matching white lace hat and mitts and she carried a bridal bouquet of red roses. Her only jewelry was her pearl earrings.
 Miss Sharon Crumly was bridesmaid for her friend and classmate. She wore a street-length dress of pastel pink embroidered taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice with round neckline and cap sleeves. She carried a bouquet of pale yellow mums.
 Bestman was Eddie Walker. The bridegroom chose to wear his navy uniform while Mr. Walker was attired in a gray business suit.
 Only members of the immediate family were in attendance.
 The mother of the bride chose a dress of navy blue silk for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were white. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of peacock blue with beige accessories. Grandmothers of the couple were present: Mrs. Roy Wilson, Mrs. Anna Sorensen, Mrs. Carrie Sterner and Mrs. Frances Stewart, all wearing navy blue dresses with blue or black accessories.
 A reception was held following the ceremony with Mrs. Roy Hansen and Mrs. Harry Thompson in charge of serving the refreshments.
 Mrs. Roy Hansen and Mrs. Harry Thompson baked and decorated the three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake was frosted in white with wedding bells and roses.
 Miss Marilyn Terrill presided at the gift table.
 The bride is a graduate of Page high school and is employed by the General Telephone Company at Columbus.
 The bridegroom is also a graduate of the Page high school and is serving in the navy aboard the USS Kearsage.
 After a short wedding trip, the couple will go to Columbus where she will resume her work until her vacation in early October when they will visit relatives. Mrs. Stewart expects to work until the expiration of his navy assignment in March of next year.

Return from Wyoming—
 Joe Jareske, Dennis Murphy and Grover Shaw returned late Tuesday from a two weeks visit in Wyoming. They stopped at Thermopolis and Hot Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Harmon of Scottsbluff, formerly of O'Neill, were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Johnson.
