

Butte's Strong Start Melts in Cold Wind

St. Mary's Turns on Heat, 42-6

By JOHN BRADY
Bob Kyriess, a speedy and shifty back for the host St. Mary's academy Cardinals, dragged Kyriess down on the one-yard-line, but Mr. Kyriess crashed over for a touchdown on the next play. The extra point failed and that ended the Wildcat offense for the night as they tumbled before the highly-rated Cardinals, 42-6.

The Cardinals entered the contest being rated number one in the class A section of eight-man grid circles in Nebraska and were unscathed upon in their first two outings.

Kyriess' dazzling dash was the first enemy to penetrate beyond the 40 and his crossing of the double stripe lighted the fuse which caused the bomb to explode.

The home team fought back to tie the contest in the closing moments of the first period and the extra point put Coach Don Templemeyer's crew ahead to stay as the quarter came to a close. From that time on it was all St. Mary's.

Ron Clark crashed four yards for the first Cardinal tally and it was Gene Schneider who added the point. Bill Craig returned to action in the second stanza and fired a TD strike to Left End Bert Belina. The play covered 23 yards and brought the academy fans to their feet. When the point after failed, the scoreboard read: St. Mary's 13; Butte 6.

Clark wasted little time getting the ball back in Cardinal control and then he covered 15 yards on the final two tries to set the scoring at 19-6. Once again the visitors were in possession of the pigskin, but that is where the conversation ended. A pass seemed like the logical call with third and 12 and 12 yards to go so the Wildcat quarterback fired back to throw.

He couldn't find his man and Larry Donohoe and Charles Mahoney grounded him in the end zone for a safety. Score: St. Mary's 21; Butte 6.

Schneider wasted little time getting the second half scoring underway. He covered 46 yards on the second play of the second half. After adding the point himself, the Big Red led 28-6.

From then on until late in the third the ball changed hands with the reserves seeing plenty of action for the Hilltoppers.

Craig re-entered the contest late in the third to team with Larry Tomlinson for the next Cardinal score. He hit the big end with a 26-yard touchdown toss and then with a four-yard pitch that added the point, making it 35-6.

The cool wind had the fans huddled in their heavy coats by this time, but Craig chilled the Wildcats even more when he rounded out the scoring by firing a 23-yard strike to Schneider in the final canto. Schneider again added the point and the final score sounded like this: St. Mary's 42; Butte 6.

Defensive play of the academy forces combined with the running and blocking of Clark and Schneider, the impressive passing of Craig and Stevens, who hit their mark time and time again with Belina and Tomlinson standing alone, and the outstanding line play of Paul Ziska, Gene Turner, Larry Donohoe and Kieth McKim were combined factors in the victory that put SMA on top of Niobrara Valley conference.

Clark has been laid for the season due to a back injury. He had an eight-yard average and racked up 31 points in three games. Ziska hurt his knee—an old injury—and may be sidelined awhile. Templemeyer announced Tuesday.

Second place in the conference visit Carney park tonight (Thursday) in a game which could decide the conference championship.

The Cards will be shooting for their 13th consecutive win. Niobrara has lost only to Wausa-12.

19—in the opener and finished second to the Cards in the loop last year.

A hula hoop contest for grade school-age kids will be staged at half-time. Competition will be waged in three age groups. There will be prizes.

Ainsworth Buries Bassett, 32 - 0

AINS WORTH — The Ainsworth Bulldogs looked good in all departments Friday night as they ran over the visiting Bassett Tigers, 32-0, on the Ainsworth grid.

Ainsworth field a much heavier and more experienced team.

Pigskin Preview

By JOHN BRADY

Creighton at O'Neill High—The Eagles lost a heartbreaker to Burwell last week and will be looking for another taste of victory. Marv Miller's crew should win their fourth outing.

Niobrara at St. Mary's — The Cardinals should win them all this year. Niobrara is second in the conference, but lacks the guns to stop the Hilltoppers.

Valentine at Ainsworth — The Bulldogs are the surprise of the NCCAC and might pull another surprise Friday night, but the nod goes to Valentine on experience and size.

Stuart at Randolph—Stuart has won two out of three, and will be playing someone their size. Broncos should come out victorious.

Ewing at Atkinson—Atkinson is rebuilding and isn't ready. Ewing isn't as strong as in past years, but should get by the Balers. Atkinson's homecoming might make the difference. Ewing in a close one.

Bassett at Springfield — Bassett is smarting from two conference whippings and will take it out on the Indians. Bassett hasn't reached its potential but should have little trouble finding the range.

Iowa State at Nebraska — The Cornhuskers found their match last week at Purdue after their surprising win over Penn State, but should win this first loop contest. Iowa State will be stronger than last year when the Cyclones whipped the Scarlet, 13-0. Nebraska is still rebuilding, but should be much stronger than any time in recent years. The Cornhuskers on a hunch.

Brady Racks Up 3 TD's for Lynch

CHAMBERS — The Lynch high gridders moved on Chambers Friday night and emerged with a 41-6 victory. Chambers was playing its first game of eight-man ball. The Coyotes normally are a six-man team.

Jim Brady, Lynch quarterback, scored three touchdowns for the winners, added four extra points and gained 111 yards.

Outstanding performances were also turned in by Vic Pickering and Valjean Pickering.

Tom Cayvaugh scored the Coyotes' only TD.

Lyle Stewart, Lynch halfback, suffered a leg fracture. While attempting to move in on a tackle, he was blocked by a Coyote. He was taken to St. Anthony's hospital and Saturday was transferred to Sacred Heart hospital at Lynch.

Clark has been laid for the season due to a back injury. He had an eight-yard average and racked up 31 points in three games. Ziska hurt his knee—an old injury—and may be sidelined awhile. Templemeyer announced Tuesday.

The Cards will be shooting for their 13th consecutive win. Niobrara has lost only to Wausa-12.

Atkinson Looks for Homecoming Win

Licking Wounds from Badger Tilt

ATKINSON—The plucky Atkinson Balers, who have been through the mill in the first three games against vastly heavier and more experienced competition, will be looking for their first win of the season Friday night, which will be homecoming in the Baler camp.

They'll be entertaining the Ewing Tigers, who, likewise, have had a rocky start.

Last week the Balers were punished by the Valentine Badgers, 41-0, at Valentine. The Badgers built a 34-0 halftime lead, largely on end runs and aerial connections.

Coach Bob Lindsteadt's Atkinson crew numbers only one performer who ever started a game before the current season started. He is Bill Baker, a guard who has been moved to left halfback. Four other hands—Denny Hickok, Roger Dobias, Calvin Allen and Ken Prussa—saw varsity action last year but never started a game until the Creighton engagement three weeks ago.

The Balers lost to Creighton and Ainsworth before Valentine debacle.

Lindsteadt says his kids are undaunted. In checking some of the Valentine assaults they "gained confidence," he observed.

"Against Ewing I think it'll be a different story," Lindsteadt said Monday while looking over some of the bumps and bruises suffered by Valentine. Lindsteadt's hometown is Norfolk.

"In the second half of the Valentine game, our kids began to find themselves and put up a stubborn battle.

Some of the Baler kids weigh only 100 pounds. Occasionally the Balers were going to the air in the fourth down situations in desperate efforts to control the ball.

Taylor, Schmaderer Pace Stuart Attack

STUART — The Stuart high Broncos Friday stamped the Keya Paha county (Springview) Indians, 32-0, under the lights here in a North-Central Nebraska grid game.

Jerry Taylor, Stuart halfback, scored three touchdowns for Stuart and Rich Schmaderer, Stuart fullback, bowled across twice.

Tob Bigelow added the extra points on two of the TD's.

It was the Broncos' second win this season in three starts. Stuart lost to Valentine in the opener and later defeated Crofton.

The Broncos will be playing the Randolph Cardinals Friday night at Randolph.

Rockets Entertained—The O'Neill Rockets formally ended their baseball season with a dinner at the Town House Sunday night. Over 30 were present, including wives and lady friends of players and club officers.

CLEARWATER WINS
CLEARWATER — In a dad's night show here Friday the Clearwater six-man gridders sped past Brunswick, 39-6. Clearwater was undefeated last year and has an unblemished record thus far.

Eagles Spilled in 12-7 Heartbreaker

Yard from Victory as Gun Pops

Time ran out on the O'Neill high Eagles Friday night on Burwell one-yard-line with a first down situation. But the Eagles had used up all their allotted times-out and they took a heart-breaking 12-7 licking.

It was a whale of a game played on fairly even terms, but the Longhorns managed to capitalize on an O'Neill miscue and the touchdown that resulted spelled the victory.

Burwell scored in the opening stanza when Fullback Dewey Urbauer smashed off his own left tackle for 10 yards and a TD. The Longhorns attempted to run the extra point but O'Neill's Left Tackle Bob Wheeler smothered the try.

The game's first TD had been set up on a break. Burwell had booted to O'Neill and held the Eagles for downs. Quarterback Billy Eby dropped back to punt for the Blues and the pigskin bobbed off his foot for only five yards. This hurt. That's when Urbauer and Co. went to work on the first six-pointer.

The second period was mostly seasaw with neither team threatening seriously. At intermission Burwell owned a 6-0 lead.

O'Neill kicked to the Farfield county crew to start the second half. Urbauer, who had been doing hard running for the Longhorns in the first two games, went around O'Neill's end Mike Spitzberger for 35 yards, picking up good protection enroute to the end zone.

Larry Donlin, Eagle center, blocked Burwell's attempted placement for the PAT.

In the fourth, O'Neill's offensive began to move. Backs Jim Larson and Ronnie Smith alternated and the Eagles marched to Burwell's eight. Smith carried it over with four minutes left on the clock. Larson slanted off his own left tackle (Wheeler) or the point and the board read: Burwell 12, O'Neill 7.

O'Neill kicked to the Longhorns and the cowpunchers fumbled on their own 40. This evened the breaks, but only two minutes remained.

Eby hit Bob Williamson on the 15 and the latter was downed by his tracks. Larson uncorked 14 yards, taking it to the one with 10 seconds left. But the 'Eagles couldn't stop the clock, having used up the gratis time, and that's where the game ended: First down and goal to go but not enough time remaining to get off another play.

Larson's offensive play was brilliant and Big Bob Wheeler turned in another great performance offensively and defensively, tabbing him as one of the linemen of the year in these parts.

Coach Marv Miller's Blue will host Creighton here Friday night. Creighton owns a win over Atkinson but was punished by Hartington, 32-0, and lost to Tilden, 7-0.

Acquaintance Party Set for Rural Youth
A group of Holt county rural youth members met at the home of Gerald Ruroede to plan an acquaintance party for the youth of county.

The party will feature fun, frolic and food and will be held Monday, October 13, at the courthouse annex at 8 p.m.

"If you are 16 years of age or older and would like to have an evening of wholesome fun, we would like to have you come and join us," explains Bob Martens, news reporter.

Mrs. Kersenbrock Hostess—Winners at a combination Jeudi and Chez-Mari bridge party held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. D. A. Kersenbrock were Mesdames L. R. Sutcliffe of Ewing, G. Owen Cole of Emmet, E. M. Gleason and J. B. Grady. Guests were Mrs. J. Robert Berigan and Mrs. James Earley.

Mrs. James McNulty, Mrs. Lyle Vequist and Mrs. Bernard Pongratz drove to Sioux City Monday to be with their sister, Mrs. Harry Lansworth, who submitted to major surgery in St. Vincent's hospital.

The Presbyterian Women's rummage sale will be held October 9-10-11 in the former Council Oak building. For information call 213-J or 148.

Survival of Some Plantings 'Good'

Farmers and ranchers in Holt county planted 158 acres of trees in the spring of 1958. On some of these plantings the survival and growth was "very good," according to officials of the Holt soil and water district. In others there was a "very poor" survival and very little growth on the trees that did live.
