Women Teachers

Guests of WSCS

INMAN—This was a regular meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service, when the group convened at the Methodist church annex.

Mrs. Woodrow Gaughenbaugh, president, was in charge and presented the lesson.

Final plans were made for the bazaar and fried chicken dinner to be served in connection with the fall festival Saturday, October 4. Serving will begin at 11:30 a.m. in the annex.

Mrs. Adeline Moore and Mrs. Blanche Mossman were hostesses and served lunch. All five women teachers from the Inman school came over for refreshments.

Five Bucks for 'Buck'

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Newton of Emmet pose (above) with "Buck," their dog which turned up missing on or about Saturday, September 20. The children have posted a five dollar reward for the safe return of "Buck"—no questions asked. Here's how they described their missing pal: "He has very large, long ears; he's black with slight touches of brown about his rear legs; he wears a small white patch under the throat and has a few white hairs about his right ear and on the forehead. He's not a thoroughbred, just a dog, but we love him very much. No other dogs wanted — just "Buck!"
