Vacations Told
 in Roll Call—
 CHAMBERS—The Valley Center Extension club met Friday, September 19 at the home of Mrs.
 Lloyd Glead with Mrs. C. V. Robertson, co-hostess. There were 10 members and three visitors present. Roll call was answered by telling of an interesting vacation.
 A song, "I Love You Truly" was sung by Mrs. Glead and Mrs. C.
 Tibbets for Mrs. Clyde Kiltz, who recently observed her 50th wedding anniversary. She was also presented a gift by the club.
 The health reporter, Mrs. Roy Miller, gave a report on a new medicine used in the treatment of diabetes. Mrs. Genevieve Bell reported on the meeting of St. Anthony's hospital auxiliary. Mrs.
 Glead discussed the recent county council meeting and told of achievement day to be held October 14 in O'Neill. A booth on farm safety to be prepared by Valley Center club and also a number on the program. She also announced that she had been elected county family life chairman and Mrs. G. H.
 Grimes, group chairman for the Chambers center. Election of officers was held and all but one re-elected. Mrs. Bruce Grimes was chosen reading leader. Some committees were appointed.
 An interesting demonstration on jiffy breads was presented. The breads prepared in the demonstration were used with salad and coffee.

Stuart to Host 1959 Convention

In hotly-contested balloting Wednesday night, September 24, at the district II American Legion and auxiliary convention at Madison, Stuart was chosen for the site of the 1959 parley.
 Wausa also sought to be next year's host town. Stuart won by a narrow voting margin.
 Four hundred persons attended the Madison meeting. John E.
 Curtiss of Lincoln was main speaker at the banquet.
 Mrs. A. R. Andrews of Norfolk was elected president of the district auxiliary; Mrs. William Cox of Pierce, secretary.
 O'Neill won first place in the history book contest; Osmond, second; Wausa, third. In the scrapbook competition, O'Neill was awarded first; Plainview, second, Teller, third.
 Alvin Hesse of Page was named district service officer by the Legion, succeeding Al Sommer of Norfolk, who resigned. Hesse is also the Holt county service officer.

Legion officers have another year to serve before the next election.
 The O'Neill auxiliary conducted joint memorial services with Mrs.
 John Davidson in charge. Taking part were Mesdames Virgil Laup-sen, Vern Reynolds, Robert Lowery, Melvin Ruzicka and Lester Riege.
 Miss Carol Demmel of Madison was chosen Miss American Legion from the district. The parade featured 35 floats, 100 boys and girls, and several high school bands, gold star mothers, Spanish-American war veterans, Legionnaires and auxiliary members, also several mounts.

Snyder-Wilson
 Rites at Ainsworth

PAGE—The Methodist church in Ainsworth was decorated with baskets of large gold chrysanthemums and two seven-branch-candelabra graced the altar for the two o'clock ceremony Sunday, September 14, that united in marriage Miss Dorothy Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snyder of Ainsworth, and James Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orme Wilson of Omaha.

Rev. Joseph B. Roe performed the double ring ceremony.
 Mrs. Melvin Shoemaker of Plainview, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Everette Copes.
 The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of white Italian silk styled with a sash and neckline accented with a dora lace motif. The full skirt fell to floor length from the elongated bodice and ended in a chapel train. The veil of double illusion was held in place by a cap of net and pearls.
 She carried a cascade bouquet of tulle and roses with a removable white orchid corsage.
 Mrs. Marvin Macy of Lincoln, matron-of-honor, wore a street length dress of bronze crystalite over taffeta with a draped bodice and a full skirt and carried a cascade bouquet of gold pom poms.

 Mrs. Jerry Voss of Wood Lake and Mrs. LeRoy Patiz of Lincoln, bridesmaids, wore dresses identical to that of the matron-of-honor and carried identical bouquets.
 Kathy Carlson of North Platte and Geri Lynn Snyder of Ainsworth, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. Terry Watkins, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Gerald Wilson of Houston, served as his brother's bestman.
 Groomsman were Ronald Carey and Robert Barnes, both of Lincoln. Mr. Barnes and James Snyder, brother of the bride, were ushers.
 A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.
 Following a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will be at home at 552 South 34th street, in Omaha.

The bride graduated from the Ainsworth high school and from the Bryan Memorial hospital school of nursing August 17 of this year.
 The bridegroom was graduated from Valentine high school and attended the University of Nebraska for two years. He served for

Unique Cookbook
 Again Available

One of the most unique and unusual cookbooks in America is again available in this area. Last year, demands for the sixth edition of the Storz Cookbook were so great that the offer is being repeated this fall.
 The book is by Arthur C. Storz, recognized nationally as an outstanding hunter and fisherman.
 It is the sixth and largest edition of his cookbook, begun originally for distribution only to his friends.
 Regularly priced at $5, this edition of his book is now available for $2.50, together with 10 coupons from Storz Beer six packs.
 The book contains over 400 pages, and has beautiful full-color photographs of many unusual dishes. There is a large section on the preparation of fish and wild game. The book also has hundreds of recipes for outdoor cooking desserts, candies, pickles, and all kinds of new and different methods of preparing meats.
 More than 50,000 copies of the earlier editions of Mr. Storz' book have been distributed throughout the world. For further information contact any of the Storz dealers in this area.

Auctioneer's Statement

The Kirk-Houston herd is one of the old-established, highly reputed herds in northeast Nebraska. These Angus are not average or good. They're the very best. In all the years of Kirk breeding and production no animal has ever been returned as a non-breeder or as otherwise unsatisfactory. We earnestly urge any one interested in a club calf to look over these prospects and come prepared to buy. —DEAN MOSHER, Auctioneer
