ROCK FALLS—What a beautiful fall day! Your reporter has done about everything today, putting off staying inside to jot down a few news items.

Since most of the outside chores are done and the sprinkler reset for the last watering, there's not much of a reasonable excuse left.

Other Rock Falls News
Just had a word with Mrs. Lou Brown, who returned Sunday from a quick trip to Portland, Ore. for the funeral of her uncle, Dennis Hynes. Being her first trip out that way, she was enthralled at the beautiful scenery along the way and would like to have spent at least a month of sightseeing.

Eagles Own Two Wins Thus Far Knock Off Creighton on Home Ground

By JOHN BRADY
Playing their second game of the year before a home crowd, the O'Neill high Eagles evened their season's record with an impressive 20-0 victory over the Creighton Bulldogs Friday night.

The Blues opened the scoring in the second period, tallied twice in the third stanza and held the visitors scoreless throughout.

Dennis Tomlinson brought the crowd to their feet in the opening minutes of the second frame when he grabbed an enemy fumble from the hands of the Bulldog quarterback, and raced untouched 55 yards for the score. Ronnie Smith ran the two yards for the point and the Eagles led 7-0. After that the ball changed hands back-and-forth until the half came to a close.

After intermission, the Blues cut loose with an offensive barrage that couldn't be met by the opposition. Jim Larson, after a brilliant run of 17 yards, crossed the double stripes from one yard out. When Bill Eby's kick for the point went wide to the right, the score stood 13-0 with Coach Marv Miller's boys holding the reins.

A fumble set up the final Eagle tally in the third. With Smith carrying the mail and a pair of key blocks the lads from the North-Central Nebraska conference led 18-0. A pass from Bill Bruce Eby to Bobby Burke Eby netted the point. The twins, Bill doing the throwing and Bob alone in the end zone, are the only set of twins playing football this year in the conference.

The fourth stanza found the ball once again changing hands in the middle of the field. When the final gun sounded, O'Neill had wrapped up the second win of the season compared to two losses.

The offensive play of Tomlinson, Smith and Larson sparked the Blues while Bill Eby's steady play continued to be the stabilizer in the Eagle attack. For defensive purposes, Larry Donlin was the man of the hour as he intercepted a pair of Bulldog passes and did a fine job backing up the line. Butch Wheeler also played his role as a defensive stalwart for the crew of Coach Miller.

Mieler, a 115-pound speedster, and Quarterback Jimmie were the big guns in the Creighton attack, but the Bulldogs couldn't get the ball moving once they got inside O'Neill territory. Ledderer was the one bright spot in Bulldog defensive play. Time after time he crashed through the Eagle line to halt a play before it could get underway.

Ainsworth visits the Carney park grid Friday night in a conference fray. The Bulldogs have beaten Bassett and Atkinson in NCCAC games this season, but fell to a strong Valentine delegation Friday night. At present the Eagles own one victory and have no defeats in conference action and will be looking for a stronger hold than second place in the loop behind the Valentine Badgers who now stand 3-0. Valentine tangles with the Tigers from Bassett this week.

Tigers Knock-Off Atkinson, 6-0

ATKINSON—The Ewing high Tigers dampened the homecoming festivities at Atkinson high Friday night, 6-0.

Jerry Hahlback scampered 50 yards for the only touchdown of the game.

The Balers' game young team—with only one veteran—tried to win but the best they could do was to put together an occasional drive that ultimately bogged down.

Roger Dobias did most of Atkinson's ball carrying. Ewing's touchdown came in the first half. Homecoming royalty was crowned at intermission.

Pigskin Preview

By JOHN BRADY
Ainsworth at O'Neill—The Bulldogs were victims of Valentine's impressive machine Friday, but they will be coming to O'Neill looking for their third conference win. O'Neill looked good against Creighton, but lacked the guns and the speed to contain the visitors. Bassett has been the only common foe to date. O'Neill won 19-7. Ainsworth thumped the Tigers 33-0. The pick is Ainsworth.

Atkinson at Stuart—This isn't the year for the lads from Atkinson. They gave Ewing a run last week, but fell in their fourth outing, 6-0. Stuart ran over Randolph 27-7 and should make the Balers another feather in the cap. Stuart by a couple of touchdowns.

Kansas State at Nebraska—Nebraska won Saturday, but that is all that can be said. The Huskers lost the contest in the statistics department and should have lost the ball game. Had it not been for some offensive bright spots for the Huskers, the score could have been ridiculous. Kansas State gets the nod over the unpredictable Huskers.

Chambers Loses in 13-12 Battle

CHAMBERS—It was a narrow loss—12-13—Friday night at Elgin as the Chambers high Coyotes yielded to Elgin high.

Jim Cavanaugh tallied both touchdowns for Chambers. Quarterback Bob Gardner passed to End Eddie Fleck to set up the first Coyote marker. The play covered 25 yards. Halfback Jim then squirmed 23 yards to score.

The second Coyote TD came after Gardner intercepted an Elgin pass on the five and ran a fine job backing up the line. Butch Wheeler also played his role as a defensive stalwart for the crew of Coach Miller.

Chambers failed in both tries for PAT's. Gardner missed a dropkick and a running play fizzled on the other.

Elgin scored in the first and third on passes.

Stuart Broncos Find Easy Win

STUART—The Stuart Broncos ran true to the pre-game charts Friday night and walked over the Randolph Cardinals, 28-7, at Randolph.

The Cards' only TD came on a pass.

Rich Schmaderer and Jerry Taylor accounted for two touchdowns apiece for Stuart.

Cardinals Plaster Niobrara Lions

By JOHN BRADY
Niobrara high Lions became the fourth victim of the highly-rated St. Mary's academy Cardinals but not until the visitors from the north had put up a gallant and desperate bid to halt the Hilltoppers.

Carney park was the arena for the last Thursday night's battle, but the strength of the Cardinals began to tell in the last half after the Cardinals had left for the intermission with a wobbly 7-0 lead.

Breaks, whether they be good or bad, often tell the tale in a football game and it was the score in this tussle. The only scoring in the first half came when Lambert Belina, big end for the Cardinals, picked up a fumble and raced 35 yards to paydirt. An end sweep by Gene Schneider added the point and that was the half-time score.

Niobrara, although outweighed and undermanned, put up a stout defense and held the heavily favored Dan Templemeyer crew until Belina's run.

Bill Craig and Larry Tomlinson teamed for a spine-chilling pass play in the early moments of the third. The toss covered 50 yards and Larry was far behind the nearest defender when he pulled it in on the five-yard line. The score remained 13-0 when the extra point failed.

The only sustained drive the Cardinals could produce started on the ball. This drive covered 65 yards with Schneider carrying the mail the final two. Schneider added the point and the lads from Niobrara trailed 0-20.

The never-say-die visitors fought back gamely and were beginning to beat a path through the home team's defense when Belina intercepted a pass and, after a dazzling sprint that saw him reverse his field, crossed the double stripes, eating up 65 yards enroute. A pass to Tomlinson netted the point and the Hilltoppers led 27-0.

St. Mary's held the number one spot on the class A eight-man ratings going into the contest, but the Cardinals waited until the final half before they finally showed why they deserve the rating.

SMA couldn't get an offensive drive rolling until after intermission. The defensive play of both sides was highly respected. It was a case where fans saw a much better ball game than the final 27-0 score indicated.

St. Mary's racked up eight first downs; Niobrara, five. The Cardinals built up 200 yards in rushing and passing compared to Niobrara's 82.

Airport Authority Is Being Established

airport. The bonding firm that purchases the revenue bonds will hold no title. Like all revenue bonds, issued under LB 459, is a maximum of 20 years. The law provides that the authority cannot be dissolved until all liabilities are paid.

Cities currently establishing authorities under the new law are Columbus, Broken Bow, Burwell and Holdrege. Of these only Columbus is in store for carrier service on an established route.

The Chamber of Commerce resolution stressed that O'Neill is without adequate public transportation now that the last passenger trains have disappeared.

That Frontier would revise its schedule and land here and that the civil aeronautics board will approve the move is considered unquestionable because O'Neill could be a key stop on the route.

O'Neill's construction problems are more difficult than Valentine's, the state airport engineer told the council. Valentine's runway is on sand with a sub-base and stabilized base. Some ground at Valentine has to be cut away and some has to be filled. Costs there may be less than at O'Neill, the Lincoln man said.

Length of the runways to accommodate the twin-engine DC-3 Sunliners used by Frontier is determined by the altitude and Standard width for hard surface runways is 100 ft. The estimated costs would include new type lighting in which each runway light has its own transformer.

Loans ranging between $10 and $2,000 will be accepted. They will mature in 20 years and are secured by a first mortgage on the hospital physical property. The interest and five percent of the principal will be paid to each lender annually.

'Voice' Now Heard on VOR Station

O'Neill's omnirange shortwave radio station, which has been identifying the city for pilots since early summer, is now providing voice contact with planes. The voice originates at the CAA (civil aeronautics administration) office at Grand Island by remote control. Pilots asking O'Neill's VOR for weather and flying information are answered by a Grand Island voice. Grand Island has a radar eye that penetrates much of the sandhills area and has other weather information to pass on.

If O'Neill's airport is brought up to standard it is expected CAA would staff it and two or three families would be brought to the city.

Frontier would also assign two men to O'Neill if and when it is made a scheduled stop.
