Recruiter Finishes
Near Top of Class

EWING—Sgt. Eugene K. Lee, the army's youngest recruiter, was graduated September 26 at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., after a three week recruiting course. He finished number five in his class. Sergeant Lee is now with the army recruiting service in Sioux City. Since his entrance into the army in January, 1955, Sergeant Lee has attended four army schools: The 10th division non-commissioned officers' academy at Bamberg, Germany; the 10th division's medical academy at Bad Kitzingen, Germany; nuclear warfare and detection instrument course at Wurzburg, Germany; and Ft. Benjamin. In each school he finished near the top of his class. Sergeant Lee returned to the United States from Germany and was discharged from the army. After a short time, he re-enlisted and now resides, with his wife and family, at 2306½ Douglas St., Sioux City. He is the son of Mrs. Anita Lee of Ewing and was graduated from the Ewing high school with the class of 1954.
