Caribbean Part of W S C S Study

PAGE—Mrs. Dora Townsend conducted the worship service at the Wesleyan room of the Methodist church Thursday afternoon, reading the story of the Good Samaritan for the scripture lesson. It was a regular meeting of the Women's Society for Christian Services. She cited the life of Pilate in illustration of the wrong type of life for a leader. The song, "Crown Thy Good With Brotherhood," prefaced the emphasis placed on the interest in the Caribbean area, Mexico, Hawaii and Canada.

Mrs. Edgar Stauffer showed slides on the International Peace Gardens, a 2,188-acre tract of landscaped plantings between Manitoba and North Dakota in recognition of the peace that has existed between Canada and the United States.
 During the business meeting, Mrs. Stauffer announced the study course beginning Monday evening, October 13.

October 30 marks the week of prayer and self-denial observance and October 31 will find the children again canvassing the town in the interest of UNICEF, which has become the Hallowe'en custom.
 Mrs. Lyman Parks and Mrs. Harry Tegler served lunch.

Mrs. Jud Russell Visits Arkansas

PAGE—Mrs. Elmer Spann of Atkinson took her mother, Mrs. Jud Russell, to Polk where she accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lampshire, to Wynne, Ark. They were guests of the Lampshires' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McKenzie. The group visited points of interest nearby, including Memphis, Tenn. They drove into Mississippi for a dinner date where they glimpsed the Mississippi valley and explored the more scenic spots of the Ozarks. The hills, they said, were ablaze with fall color that added to the native rock formations.
 They also visited the old home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell at Mound City, Kans., and with her sister, Mrs. Vernie Bolz at Palmyra, and with Mrs. Clara Botsford, also a sister, at Unadilla. They saw old friends and neighbors in that area and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelson at Lincoln.
 After a two week absence, Mrs. Russell returned to her home Wednesday, October 1.

Other Page News
 Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Farnsworth returned home Wednesday, October 1, from a vacation trip that included a visit with relatives in Idaho, Oregon and Washington. They traveled a scenic route home from San Francisco, Calif., to Denver, Colo., featuring the Shasta road.
 Wayne Whitney, a college of agriculture horticulturist, conducted a pruning demonstration for fruit trees, grapes and shrubs at the Harry Harper home Tuesday, September 30. A "learn by doing meeting" is scheduled to be held in March at the Ewing orchard. A watermelon feed concluded the afternoon.
 Mrs. Frieda Asher and Mrs. Lulu Wanser were Tuesday evening, September 30, dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wanser, 1517 and Dick in honor of Mrs. Lulu Wanser's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clausen of Norfolk have purchased the half-section of land located one mile south of Page from Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Held. In the transaction the Helds became the owners of a residence in Norfolk in the Becker addition and will move there November 1.

Plans for the October party—an annual event—were discussed during the business meeting Wednesday evening, October 1, when members of the Royal Neighbors of America lodge met at the TOE hall for a scheduled meeting. Members of the Ewing camp recently transferred to the Page camp were guests-of-honor. A covered dish lunch will be served. Mrs. Jerry Lamason and Mrs. Lee Taylor served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Matschullat and children were Friday evening guests in the M. H. Held home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anson and children went to the Springview locality Sunday on a sightseeing and hunting trip. Mr. Anson bagged his limit of prairie chickens.
 Mrs. Raymond Heiss was a guest Friday when the members of the Just-A-Mere club met at the home of Mrs. Icie Snyder for a 2:30 o'clock dessert luncheon. All members were present except Mrs. Hattie Carson and Mrs. Louise Heiss. Canasta and ruck furnished the entertainment. Mrs. Allen Haynes will be the October 17 hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Ickes and Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Goldfuss were Sunday guests in the Arthur Coover home near Neligh. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coover and son of Howells were weekend guests there.

Mrs. George Clasey was hostess to the members of the Chatter Sew club Friday for an informal afternoon of fancywork and visiting. All members except Mrs. Orville Kemper were present for the observance of the 25th anniversary of the organization. The hostess served a candle birthday cake in observance of the event. Mrs. Art Grass will be the November 7 hostess.
 Mrs. Bert Finley received the traveling award Friday afternoon when the GG&G club members were guests of Mrs. Clarence Dobbins. Mrs. Anton Nissen held high score and Mrs. Clarence Stevens took home the low score prize.
 Mr. and Mrs. Otto Matschullat hosted the Thursday evening Couples Card club. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dobbins will entertain the group tonight (Thursday).

MOVE TO O'NEILL
 LYNCH—The Harold Krugman family, formerly of Lynch, has moved from Spencer to O'Neill where Mr. Krugman has employment at the Shellhamer Implement company.

Miss Janice Holsclaw Feted at Shower

Miss Janice Holsclaw was guest-of-honor at a prenuptial shower Friday evening at the home of Miss Sharon Hancock. Seven other guests were present. Refreshments were served following the opening of many gifts.

Miss Holsclaw and John Lee Farrier of Chambers were married Sunday afternoon at First Presbyterian church.

Stevens Infant Dies at Norfolk

PAGE—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Stevens of Wisner, born Friday, October 3, in a Norfolk hospital, died that evening. The infant suffered a heart ailment.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, October 7, at Norfolk and burial was at Inman.
 Survivors include: Parents—Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Stevens; sisters

Janet, Julie and Joanne; grandfather—Harold Banta of Page. Mrs. Stevens is the former Patty Banta.

Elgin Ray, Marvin Miller and William Artus attended the Nebraska-Iowa State football game Saturday in Lincoln.

L. D. Putnam and sons went to Valentine Tuesday where they will be selling cattle at the sale.

Mrs. Richard Stewart, Recent Bride, Feted—

PAGE—Mothers of the graduating classes of 1955 and '57 honored Mrs. Richard Stewart, a recent bride, at a postnuptial shower at the Page Improvement club building Saturday afternoon, October 4. A short program was arranged. Mrs. Roy Hansen presented an accordion solo. The bride was awarded prizes given in the contest games and Mrs. Cordes Walker presented a reading—an original poem written for the occasion. Mrs. Leo Neubauer, Mrs. James Stewart and Miss Sharon Crumly assisted with the gifts while Miss Linda Cronk presided over the giftbook.
 Refreshments were served to 55 guests.
