Lorene Rose Mnarik, Leonard J. Dufek United at Verdigré

VERDIGRE—Before an altar decorated with orange, yellow, and gold pompoms and bronze mums, Miss Lorene Rose Mnarik was united in marriage to Leonard Joseph Dufek at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass Tuesday morning, October 14, at St. Wenceslaus Catholic church at Verdigré.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles J. Obomy. Mass servers were Dennis Swoboda and Michael Sandoz.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mnarik of Verdigré and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dufek of Verdigré.

For the processional, Mrs. Elvira Jedlicka Pavlik played Kreckel's "Wedding March". Before the marriage ceremony Mrs. Pavlik sang, "O Perfect Love", by Marsh. She also played soft music at the organ during the marriage ceremony and sang the Svamp's "Ave Maria" for the offertorium. The St. Wenceslaus adult choir sang the Mass in Honor of Bernadette of Lourdes. The choir also sang "O Lord I Am Not Worthy", during holy communion and then sang "On this Day O Beautiful Mother" while the bride presented a bouquet of pink carnations to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Mrs. Pavlik played the Rossini's "Wedding March" for the recessional.

White satin pew bows adorned the center aisle which was carpeted in white. The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a delicate floor-length gown of imported hand-clipped Chantilly lace over rayon. The bodice of lace was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline sprinkled with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The sleeves tapered to a point over the wrist. A full, swirling skirt was fashioned with a flounce of ruffles of the lace which repeated the jewel trim, and was accented with a band of satin ribbon at the hipline, which ended in a bow with streamers that fell to the hem of the skirt.

Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was caught by a crown of illusion leaves studded with sequins, and pearlized orange blossoms. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white carnations backed with leaves of white nylon tubing embedded with iridescent sequins to match the trim on the bride's gown.

She carried out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue, and a penny in her shoe. Miss Gladys Mnarik of Wayne sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Ellen Mnarik, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Emil Marshall of Niobrara, cousin of the bride.

The bride's attendants wore identical gowns of Capucine antique taffeta, featuring a scoop neckline, short sleeves and the gauntlets were in a contrasting Terra Cotta shade. The waltz length bouffant skirt was high lighted by over drapes of Capucine revealing a drop skirt of Terra Cotta. A cumberbund and bow of the contrasting shade accented the empire waistline. Their jewelry, matching the Terra Cotta shade, was a necklace and earring set, a gift from the bride. They wore matching headbands made of imported nylon tubing, braided and trimmed with small bronze pompoms and suede leaves.

The attendants carried a bouquet of semicrescent arrangement of bronze pompoms around a large bronze mum.

MORE MORE Sandra Mnarik of Niobrara was flowergirl. Her gown of white taffeta and nylon net was floor length, designed with a ruffled neckline and short sleeves in a puffed style. The nylon net over taffeta skirt had a double ruffle on each side and a hoop underneath the double skirt. A gold ribbon flower was at the neckline and at the waist which had streamers tied in lover's knots extending to the hem of the skirt. She wore a crown made of net and James Becker of Center presided at the gift table. For her going away costume, the bride chose a rayon faille dress of Dior blue with black accessories.

Guests were present from O'Neill, Lynch, Redbird, Verdigré, Niobrara, Verdigré, Creighton, Winnetoon, Center, Plainview, Osmond, Wayne, Gretna and Vermilion, Tabor and Tiddall, S.D.

On their return home for a wedding trip the newlyweds will reside on a farm.

The bride is a 1957 graduate of the Verdigré high school. The bridegroom, engaged in farming, has served two years in the armed forces.

Mr. and Mrs. Dufek entertained their friends and relatives at a free wedding dance at the ZCEJ hall in Verdigré that evening.

Hahlbeck, McDaniels Royalty at Ewing

Coronation Held at Grid Intermission

EWING—Jerry Hahlbeck, senior football star, and Miss Roberta McDaniels, senior member of the Pep club, were elected king and queen at the Ewing high school homecoming festivities Friday.

They were crowned at half time of the game between the Ewing Tigers and Tilden, won by Tilden 14-6.

Attending the royal couple were Carolyn Tams and Lyle Larson, seniors; Lois Kaczor and Harold Parks, juniors; Judy Tinsley and Freddie Wright, sophomores, and Ardis Parks and Jerry Tams, freshmen.

In the afternoon the Ewing public school staged a parade originating at the school and proceeding through Main.

The junior class received first prize on a rocket float; the sophomores, their float—a flower-covered grave, "Here Lies Tilden"—won second place. The freshmen won third with a high clock, "Time to Beat Tilden", was inscribed.

First to the fourth graders featured Halloween costumes. The fifth and sixth graders featured Alaska—the new state, and the seventh and eighth graders carried posters boosting the Tigers.

The parade was led by the Pep club in costume. A pep rally was staged in the town's main square.

The homecoming celebration was brought to a close with a prom at St. Dominic's hall with the Rhythm Ramblers furnishing music.

Robert Fox's Plane Passes Over City

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox received a call from their son, Robert, who is stationed at Norwalk, Calif., with the air force, stating he was in Sioux Falls, S.D., on a training flight. Mrs. Fox, Gordon and Carol went to Marion, S.D., to meet him. He visited here until Monday when his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, and Cindy, drove him back to Sioux Falls. Enroute to California, the plane circled O'Neill.

Guests Sunday afternoon at the Fox home in honor of Robert were Mrs. Wayne Fox and family of Emmet, Mrs. Lyle Fox of Inman, Mrs. George Bosh and family, Mrs. Belzer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Fox and Cindy, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kelly, Gordon Fox, a student at the University of Nebraska, Miss Hilda Desieve of Atkinson and Larry and Carol Fox.

Robert, a mechanic, reenlisted in the air force almost a year ago.

Give Report on Achievement Day

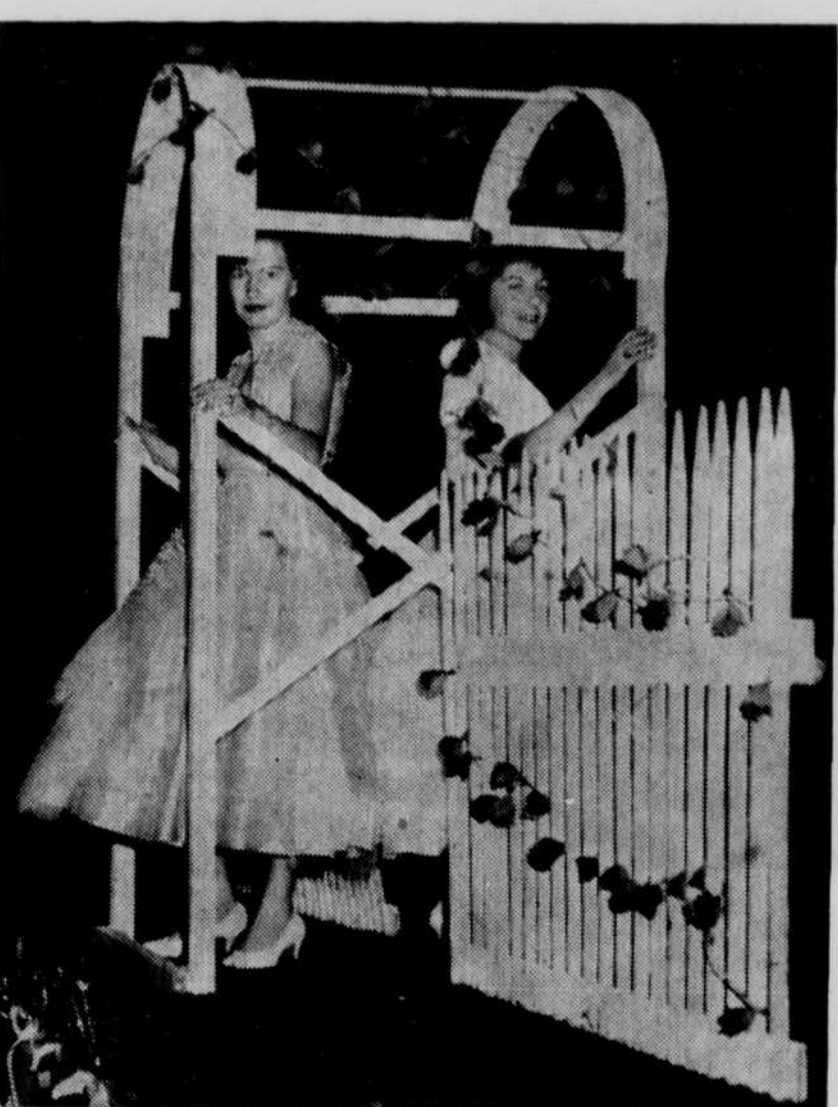

INMAN—Thirteen members and one visitor were present Wednesday afternoon, October 15, at the county home of Mrs. Clifford Sobotka when the Inman Workers Project club met.

Several who attend the county achievement day reported on the program and Mrs. Sobotka and Mrs. Ray Siders reported on the hospital auxiliary meeting. Mrs. Albert Reynolds, president, was in charge. Mrs. Kenneth Coventry and Mrs. H. E. Smith presented the lesson on good lighting for the home.

The November 19 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ray Siders. Mrs. L. F. Kopecky and Mrs. Eleanor Goughenbaugh will present part II of good lighting. Mrs. Sobotka served lunch at the close.

The senior float compelled considerable attention in Ewing's high's homecoming parade. The lassies under the lattice in the 45-degree temperature are Gloria Schroeder and Sherry Tuttle.—The Frontier Tuttle.

A Constitutional Amendment is needed to provide for continued and increased payments in lieu of taxes by Consumers and Omaha Public Power Districts.

HERE'S WHY! . . .

Under the present laws of the State of Nebraska, Consumers and Omaha Public Power Districts now make payments "in lieu of taxes" based on the amount paid by the previous owner of the property.

The amount paid by Consumers and Omaha Public Power Districts has remained frozen while the amount of taxes paid by individuals and business has been constantly rising. Further, the question has been raised as to the legality of the present "in lieu of tax" payments. The proposed constitutional amendment will remove all question of legality.

The proposed amendment requires public corporations which are organized to provide electricity to continue to make the same payments in lieu of taxes as they did in 1957. It further permits the legislature to require additional payments to incorporated cities and villages, school districts, counties, and the state, but not to exceed a total of 5% (including present payments) of the gross retail electric revenue of the public corporation in cities and villages.

Note
300 X FOR

It will NOT cause an increase in your electric rates. It WILL protect, and in many cases increase the payments made to cities and villages, school districts, counties, and the state by
