75 Attend Youth Center Masquerade

EWING—The Halloween masquerade party held at the youth center Thursday evening was a huge success. The 75 in attendance included the invited teenage guests from Inman, Page and Orchard.

King and queen of Halloween selected by popular vote. The honors went to Miss Carolee Schmisser and Ronald Thoenel. The prince and princess elected were Lois Kaczor and Douglas Shrader. Dancing, games and stunts provided entertainment for all.

The four high school grades in Ewing provided homemade ice cream, cup cakes and lemonade for refreshments. Sponsors were Miss Elsie Chase, Miss Lena Baker, Mrs. Hester Timmons, Supt. G. D. Ryan and Coach Tom Hutton. Several parents were also present for the fun.

90 Spook Callers at One Ewing Home

EWING—The village of Ewing was "invaded" by the spirit of Halloween, Friday evening from about 7 to 9 o'clock. Children by two's, three's, four's and on up to 10 in a group, dressed as ghosts, witches, goblins with now and then a cowboy, an Indian or a pirate, knocked at the homes shouting "tricks or treats". Their arrival was not unexpected, and much preparation had been made for this event, but when the callers began to number into the forties, treats began to give out. One home reports about 90 callers and another 63, and many had around 40.

All in all it was a big night for the youngsters as they reached their homes with well filled bags of "loot".

A football game between the Ewing Tigers and Newman Grove provided entertainment for many. The visitors won the game, score 6 to 0.

The Orchard firemen held their annual ball at the Summerland pavilion Friday evening, which was attended by many Ewingites.

Stafford School Party Scene

EWING—The Stafford rural school was the scene of a lively Halloween party Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 4. Mrs. Ralph Eacker of Ewing is the teacher. Parents of the children were invited guests. The children were all in Halloween costumes. Michael Dougherty, a fourth grader, was selected by the guests as winner, in his ghost costume. He was presented a prize. In the penny guessing contest in which guests and students participated, was won by Pat Dougherty.

Other stunts and games made up the program for entertainment. A delicious Halloween lunch was served.
