

Heart Official Talks to Auxiliary

The regular meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, Simonson unit 93, was held Wednesday, November 5, in the lounge of the Legion hall.

Mr. Shelan, a representative of the American Heart association, talked to the members before the formal meeting. He thanked the auxiliary for having helped with the heart drive in the past years. He also gave information on the allocation and use of the money collected.

The Holt county meeting of the American Heart and auxiliary will be in O'Neill Monday evening, November 17. Plans were completed for O'Neill's participation in this event.

There were 195 people served luncheon on Holt county government day held October 27.

Mrs. Robert Lowery reported that the fund-raising committee decided that the auxiliary would sponsor a bake sale in the near future.

Rehabilitation Chairman Lowery reported on the gift shop purchases. Part of the gifts were displayed.

Simonson unit's hospital assignment for this year is eight pairs of "scuffies".

The auxiliary decided to buy gifts for the Yanks-who-gave.

Winnie Barger's name was drawn for the attendance award. As she was not present her name was returned. The award for December will be $10. October hostesses were Mrs. Fred Appleby, Mrs. William Jansen, Mrs. Charles Fox and Mrs. Frank Sullivan.

Yule Party Planned for December

EWING—"Floor making" was the lesson of the Facts and Fun home extension club meeting held Thursday afternoon at the farm home of Mrs. Frank Schmidt. Point-settas and primrose corsages were made. Mrs. J. L. Pruden was in charge.

A Christmas party was planned for the meeting in December and the place is to be announced. Each member is to bring a box of a favorite cookie which will be exchanged.

Mrs. Schmidt served lunch to seven members and two guests. Mrs. Carl Ahlers and Mrs. C. C. Habbeck, who also became members of the club.

Worship Ends Week of Self-Denial

EWING—"To Tell to All the World That God Is Light" was the theme used by Mrs. Claude Elliott, secretary of spiritual life of the Women's Society of Christian Service, as she presented the program Wednesday afternoon, November 5, at the parlors of the Methodist church.

This service concluded the week of prayer and self-denial. Talks were given on Cuba, Eliza Bowman school auditorium, student hostels in Mexico, Bolivia, development of the work of the women's division of Christian Service.

Assisting with the service were: Mrs. Jessie Angus, Mrs. Anna Pollock, Mrs. J. L. Pruden and Mrs. Henry Fleming, Mrs. S. E. Borden presided at the piano.

The worship table was centered with a picture of Christ in the temple.

Mrs. James Tinsley, president, was in charge of the business session. Several reports were given by secretaries. Get-well and greeting cards were sent to sick members and friends.

The thanksgiving theme was carried out in table decorations by Mrs. Hazel Ruby and Mrs. Dewitt Hoke, who served refreshments to 18 members.

PAGE—Reports on the UNICEF program and the election dinner and bazaar were given by Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge and Mrs. Herbert Steinberg when the members of the Women's Society for Christian Service met at the Wesleyan room Thursday afternoon.

In the absence of the president, vice-president and secretary, Mrs. Trowbridge presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Raymond Heiss acted as secretary.

Mrs. Edgar Stauffer showed a film on UNICEF interest. It is the same film that was shown Halloween night when the canvas of the town was made. The film depicted some of the underprivileged children in various countries, also the part the U. S. government plays in the supply of food and foundation livestock to replace those upon which unfortunate peoples previously depended. Mrs. Arnold Stewart was narrator for the film.

Get-well cards were sent to Cordes Walker, Mesdames Rollie Snell, R. D. Copes, Edd Stewart, Hal Farnsworth and Alma Tegler.

Mrs. Evelyn Gray and Mrs. Robert Gray served refreshments.
