Gloves Prospects Look Good Here

Max Pofahl, who is managing O'Neill's golden gloves boxing team, sponsored by Simonson post 93 of the American Legion, has been working six fighters in regular rehearsals at the well-equipped Legion club.

He says prospects are good. His brother, Dean, will be fighting in the welterweight class, also Larry Cleary. Another Pofahl, Butch, will go in the feather class. Rolland Closson will be O'Neill's bantam hope and he has had considerable experience.

Jerry McGinn will compete in the light heavy division and Vic Burrell of Chambers, a veteran of 32 service fights, will go in the middleweight class.
Max says Burrell is "going to go someplace."
Dean will battle Marlin Stiefel, South Dakota's welter champ, at Norfolk December 4. Other O'Neill team members also will be on the exhibition card.

Here's a youngster—his name is Herbert—who really enjoys having his ears washed by his mother, Herbert and his mother, Rose, are special pets of Jack Wilkinson, noted Algonquin Park, Ontario, guide. Herbert and Rose live in a clump of alders near the Canadian National Railway station at Government Park, Ont., and each morning trot down the lane to Wilkinson's kitchen door for tidbits from the well-laden table.

Inman Wins 46-45 Tilt at Creighton

INMAN—Friday night the Inman high Tigers popped the cork on the 1958-59 basketball campaign. Both reserve and varsity teams fashioned wins.

The Inman seconds won 20-11 over St. Ludger's academy at Creighton after a low-scoring first half that ended 5-3. Bob Morrow was Inman's best point-getter in the prelim.
Coach Bill Miller's varsity started off in the same manner against the Ludger quintet. At the half the Creighton parochial crew was in front, 22-20.

In a thrill-packed final quarter, Inman finished in front, 46-45. Dick Appleby poured in 20 points for the victors. Nevens scored 16 for St. Ludger's. Harold Sobotka captained the Tigers in the inaugural.

Stevens, Mudloff, Belina to Start

Basketball will be king here starting next week.

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals will pry off the lid by entertaining the Atkinson Balers here Tuesday night, December 2.
Coach Don Templemeyer said Gale Stevens, Larry Mudloff and Lambert Belina are sure starters. Larry Tomlinson will start if his ankle is ready. The fifth post is a tossup between Gene Schneider and Larry Donohoe.

If Tomlinson isn't ready, Terry Hynes will get the center nod. The Balers lost heavily last season via graduation. Ken Prussa is an eagle shot.

Legion Meeting To Be Held

The Holt County Legion meeting which was scheduled for November 17 and postponed, will be at 8 p. m. Monday, December 8, in O'Neill.

Firemen Answer Three Alarms—
O'Neill firemen answered three calls Tuesday.
In the forenoon they were summoned to the Levi Fuller gravel pit where a fire, blamed on faulty electrical wiring, damaged an 8 x 12 granary and destroyed a haystack nearby.
At 2:15 p. m. they were called to the John Hickey farm where a pan on a stove caught afire. The rural firemen answered the alarm. There was no damage.
Tuesday evening they answered an alarm at the nondescript Bill Green residence where a kerosene heater was blamed for badly damaging a tiny, trailer-type house north of Hornby's Jolopy drive in Mrs. Green, who was at work, feared for her eight-year-old cocker spaniel dog. The dog was found inside—dead of suffocation—after the flames were extinguished.

Make a Wish

IT'S THANKSGIVING time... a time to be devoutly thankful for all of life's blessings. The wishbone is also a symbol of wishing. Our wish for this Thanksgiving season is that the conflicts and tensions might be eased everywhere in this troubled world.
