Cardinals Post 50-33 Triumph

Ragged play was evidenced by both teams here Tuesday night as the St. Mary's academy Cardinals formally opened the case season here by spanking the visiting Atkinson Balers, 50-33.

Gale Stevens took the opening tip and drove for an easy layup to break the ice. It put the Cardinals ahead where they stayed. Larry Mudloff cashed in on two fast breaks and Lambert Belina connected on a rebound and charity toss to round out SMA's first period scoring. Meanwhile, Roger Dobias potted two and Gerald Winnings added a lay-in for the Balers.

Larry Tomlinson, cold the first period, hit six of seven tries in the second. Stevens and Belina also hit. For the Orangemen, Dobias dumped three and Winnings one and the halftime count was 28-16. The Balers pulled within six points, 22-28, before the Cards came to life in the third stanza. With Stevens hitting from all angles and Gene Schneider and Mudloff aiding with steals, the Cards counted 14 consecutive points before the visitors could register. It was 44-24 at the end of the third.

SMA reserves saw action in the fourth. SMA's fast-break clicked well.

Ronnie Holly hit 14 points for the SMA seconds in a close squeak, 38-37, over the Balers reserves.

Dick Appleby and Harold Sobotka scored 12 and 11 points, respectively, to lead the Orangemen. Eleven Inman kids got into the scoring column. St. Bon's frigid play during the first two periods enabled the Tigers to build a 36-10 lead. In the second half Inman tallied 33, St. Bon 31.

Inman opened the campaign Friday, November 21, with a 46-45 win at St. Ludwig's of Creighton. Inman-St. Boniface line score: St. Bon. 7 3 17 14-41 Inman 23 13 12 21-69

PAGE—After trailing 13-20 at the half, the Page high Eagles soared to a 48-35 win over the Belden Braves Tuesday night, November 25, at Belden.

It was the season's opener for both. Dennis Kemper led Page with 15 and Fred Cronk had 14. Coach Ron Park's kids exhibited a well-balanced attack. McDonald tallied 23 for Belden.

But one week later the Eagles didn't fare as well. They dropped a 42-45 decision to St. Joseph hall of Atkinson on the Page court.

Trip to Basketball Game Is Disrupted

Cars Collide Near Spencer

SPENCER—Two carloads of Spencer high school students, enroute to Stuart for Tuesday's basketball game, figured in an accident about 5:30 p.m. Both vehicles, a 1958 Pontiac and a 1953 Ford, were eastbound from Spencer on the newly-located U.S. highway 281.

Frank R. Soukup, 19, was driver of the Pontiac, which attempted to pass the Ford, driven by Jerry Kayl, 17. About the time the two cars were abreast, Kayl said his car started pulling to the left side of the road because of a blowout of the left front tire. The cars collided and landed in the left ditch.

Three persons, all students, were in the Soukup car and were taken to Sacred Heart hospital in Lynch. Soukup suffered cuts on his forehead and back of his head. Other persons in the Soukup car were Shirley Berg, 14, of Bristow; Betty Hornback and Carolyn Ross, 16, of Spencer, who were admitted to the hospital, checked and released.

Kayl suffered a pulled left arm. His passengers were Lee Ann Ludwig, 14, of Spencer, who was in the hospital overnight with a cut forehead; Karen Olin, 16, of Spencer, who was treated for shock and a slight cut on her tongue; and Carolyn Prokup, 17, of Spencer, who had a cut on her forehead and remained in the hospital overnight.

According to State Patrolman Eugene Hastreiter, damages to the Soukup car were estimated at $800 and damage to the Kayl car was estimated at $600.
