

Engaged to O'Neill

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Oelting of Palmer announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ethel Margaret (above), to Russell D. Miner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Miner of O'Neill. Miss Oelting is a graduate of Wolbach high school and is a senior at the University of Nebraska. Her fiancée was graduated from the O'Neill high school, attended the University of Nebraska, and is presently serving in the army. No date has been set for the wedding.

'Nicest Christmas' Told by Members

CHAMBERS—The Valley Center extension club met Friday, December 12, at the home of Mrs. Glen Grimes. Sixteen members answered roll call by telling about their "nicest Christmas." Four of these are new members—Mrs. Ralph Maas, Mrs. Lloyd Wintermote, Mrs. Joe Homolke and Mrs. Paul Lidgett. Another new member, Mrs. Duane Miller, was unable to be present.

Mrs. Lloyd Wintermote conducted the business session. It was decided to have the executive committee fill out the year books and devote the time at the January meeting to making flowers.

The lesson, "Christmas traditions in Nebraska" was presented in the form of a program with music, reading and dialogues. Following the program names were drawn for next year's mystery sisters and gifts were exchanged. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Tangemans Off Again for Honolulu

CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tangeman left Tuesday, December 15, for Honolulu, T.H., to spend several weeks with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Stanton and family. They left by plane from Grand Island.

The Tangemans visited the Hawaiian Islands about two years ago.

Other Chambers News

Mrs. Henry Wood returned recently from La Grande, Ore., where she had spent two weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smoock and family, and helped care for her new granddaughter.

Mary Ellen Gillette arrived home Friday evening, December 12, from Greeley, Colo., where she is a student at Greeley college. She will spend three weeks vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Gillette and Darrel Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cavanaugh of Pennsylvania came recently to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cavanaugh, and two sisters, Bus Cavanaugh and Mrs. Rita Gilligan of Omaha accompanied them here to visit the Charles Cavanaugh family. Bus returned to Omaha, but his sister remained on a longer visit.

Douglas Dankert came from Wayne for the weekend.

Leonard Wintermote went to register at Wayne college for the second semester. He attended the first semester of this year at Gunnison, Colo.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Cox, Charles and Bill and granddaughter, Cheryl Ann, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guis Wintermote.

Don Medcalf of Ainsworth spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Medcalf.

Arabian Mission Worker Writes

AMELIA—The Women's Missionary society of the Free Methodist church met Wednesday, December 10, at the home of Mrs. Glenn White. Mrs. Milton Clemens had charge of the lesson and read a report on Dr. Paul Harrison, a missionary doctor in Arabia.

Seven members were present and answered roll call by reciting a verse of a Christmas song. Mrs. Glenn White read the Christmas Story of the birth of Christ from the Gospel of Luke.

After the lesson, Mrs. White served luncheon. The guests were seated at the table and around the Christmas centerpiece were wrapped packages with a string leading to each place setting. The guests pulled the string and received the attached package.

Family Yuletide Traditions Told

EWING—The Christmas meeting of the Help Each Other club was held Thursday, December 11, with Mrs. Frank Miller for a potluck dinner.

"Christmas Traditions We Cherish" was the theme of the lesson conducted by Mrs. Lambert Bartak. Each member answered roll call with a family tradition. Several members brought table centerpieces that could be made for the holiday table. Instead of having a gift exchange, members donated money to the opportunity center at Norfolk.

It was decided to maintain a scrapbook of club activities of the coming year, also to have a mystery box at each meeting. The one guessing its contents would get the gift and in turn bring a mystery box to the next meeting.

At the close of the meeting, coffee and cookies were served. Each member brought a plate of cookies and the recipe.

The January meeting will be with Mrs. Clarence Schmirer for a 12:30 potluck dinner.
