

Two-Car Mishap Reported at Page

PAGE—A two-car accident occurred Friday afternoon when Raymond Heiss, driving a car belonging to his son, Kenneth, struck a machine driven by Mrs. Harry Thompson at the intersection near Mrs. Jessie Cronk's home.

Mrs. Thompson was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Minnie Hansen, also Mrs. Alma Tegler and Mrs. Cronk. Mrs. Thompson was crossing the intersection to permit Mrs. Cronk to get out of the car at her home. Mrs. Tegler and Mrs. Cronk received bruises and the Thompson car was damaged possibly to the extent of $500. The Heiss vehicle had a damaged fender and headlight.

Mr. Heiss was coming from the east and icy roads made it impossible for him to stop when he saw the other car entering the intersection in front of him.

Unusual Caller at Trowbridge Home

PAGE—An unusual caller of note arrived unexpectedly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Trowbridge in the late afternoon Sunday.

The Trowbridge children, Diane, David, Danny and Dirk were astonished to see Santa Claus coming up their walk to the house. No announcement of his coming had been received and they were at a loss to know just how to receive so important a visitor.

After a short chat with each one, Santa departed without making any promises as to his possible return on the 24th.

Curiosity prompts us to inquire if any other families were fortunate enough to entertain this VIP?

Oranges Add Zip to Make-Ahead Meal

Your Christmas turkey boasts of family-favorite preparations but how about those days between Christmas and New Year? What could be better than having some "make-ahead" meals in the refrigerator for unexpected guests or just to fit into a busy schedule!

Here's an asp combination of turkey and delicious California oranges that would be perfect for the buffet supper or a quick lunch. The flavors blend wonderfully and the citrus picks up the poultry flavor. This is a new method for making a gelatine mold and will save you time and dishes. If you squint at the ingredients you will whisper "left-over idea" to yourself!

Turkey Orange Main-Dish Mold

- 1 cup water
- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
- 1 bouillon cube
- 1 cup fresh orange juice
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1 large California orange, peeled, cut into chunks
- 1 1/2 to 2 cups cooked turkey
- 1 cup cooked or canned peas, drained
- 2 tablespoons sherry (optional)

Combine water and gelatine in medium size saucepan; heat to boiling. Stir in bouillon cube; remove from heat. Stir in next three ingredients and then into small chunks. Combine with remaining ingredients. Blend with gelatine mixture and pour into 1 1/2 quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold onto serving platter; garnish with greens and orange slices. Serve with mayonnaise. Makes 6 servings.

FACTS ABOUT DIAMONDS

What does the term FANCIES or FANCY COLORS mean? (Often referred to by many jewelers as meaning shapes other than round). It means a diamond with a decided tint or depth of color; red, blue, and deep green are the rarest. Strong yellow is called canary. Browns of fine transparency and depth of color are fairly common. Green diamonds may be the result of bombardment in a cyclotron or of radium radiation, not necessarily permanent.
