

Sick & Injured

AMELIA — Bob Adair, hospitalized in Veterans hospital part of last week, returned home Thursday and will be home until after the holidays, when he will go to Minneapolis for a heart surgery. Mr. and Mrs. August Pospichal, Richard and Michael, drove to Ulysses, Sunday, December 14, to visit Mr. Pospichal's brother, who had been hospitalized. They returned home that evening. Mrs. Ralph Adair and infant son, Richard Michael, returned home Tuesday, December 16, from the Atkinson hospital. Little Richard Michael was born December 10. The Howard

Berrys arrived home from Excelsior Springs, Mo., Wednesday, December 17. Their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Berry, met them in Grand Island. The Lee Gilman received word from their daughter, Mrs. Harold Claussen of Burlington, Ia., that their daughter, Debra, had received second degree burns on her feet when she climbed into the bathtub and turned on the hot water. The Claussens had planned to be home for Christmas but it depended on the outcome of little Debra's burns. Mrs. Maude Hansen, who has been hospitalized in the Methodist hospital in Omaha for several weeks, due to a broken hip, was able to return to the hospital in Atkinson on Friday. She will stay there for a few days until she rests from the trip home. Her sons, Eugene and John, live near Amelia.

O'NEILL—Mickey Tighe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tighe, had her tonsils removed Monday at St. Anthony's hospital. T. Joe Eglin was expected home Wednesday from Clarkson hospital, Omaha. Tissue was removed from his thigh and placed on an eye lid. The left eye, closed for 20 years, now functions and compensates for the right eye in which vision has deteriorated. Richard (Dick) Laursen submitted to surgery Tuesday in St. Vincent's hospital. Surgery was performed on his index finger which was most seriously injured Sunday, December 14, in the accidental discharge of a shotgun while hunting. The hand will be saved. He is threatened with the possible loss of the index finger.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Alois Schmaderer of Stuart, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss LaVonne (above), to Kenneth Kulus, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kulus of Ralston. Miss Schmaderer is employed at Mutual of Omaha. Her fiance is a student at the University of Omaha. A June wedding is planned.

Cardinals Nudge Jays in Thriller

Holt county's two parochial quintets, both flashing bits of high-powered basketball, clashed Friday night and St. Mary's academy downed the visiting Bluejays from Atkinson St. Joseph, 52-40. The Jays jumped to a 6-0 lead in the opening moments but SMA moved ahead, 10-8, at the first quarter. The Josies owned a 20-19 halftime margin, but wilted in the third under withering fire of Larry Tomlinson, Gene Schneider, Lambert Belina and Gale Stevens. The Cards pumped in 23 points in the torrid third compared to the Jays' seven.

The Cardinals knockoff for the holidays with five consecutive wins under the belt compared to no defeats. The SMA reserves won number 4 on the prelim, a 28-27 decision over the Junior Jays. St. Mary's next opponent will be the strong Spalding academy January 7. Boxscore of main event:

Josies Post Five Wins, Two Losses in Pre-Yule Play

ATKINSON — A packed house saw Coach Mick McKay's St. Joseph Bluejays turn back the Atkinson high Balers, 56-41, in the only prep cage game in the state played Monday night. The Josies were in front, 22-18, at halftime. Richard Faust paced the winners with 18 points. Roger Dobias dumped in 12 for the cross-town rivals, the Balers. The Josies wrapped up pre-holiday play with wins over Page, Inman, St. Boniface of Elgin, Chambers and Atkinson. Losses have been to Spencer and St. Mary's of O'Neill.

AINSWORTH — The Ainsworth Bulldogs vanquished the Page county Indians (Springview) Friday night, 67-39.
