

Hokes Return from Eastern States

RIVERSIDE—The Dewitt Hoke family returned home Sunday morning from a two weeks trip. They spent Christmas with a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hobbs, at Fayetteville, N.C., and new year's at the Jack Pennington home at Naper-ville, Ill. They also called on a family of Hokes at Lebanon, Pa., where Dewitt's father was born. They saw a Hoke cemetery near his birthplace. They enjoyed many scenic places at Washington, D.C., and Gettysburg, Pa., also waded in the Atlantic ocean. Richard Woslager stayed at the Hoke home and took care of the shores.

Kathleen L. Grothe, Robert Michael Freed in Church Nuptials

ATKINSON—Miss Kathleen Lela Grothe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Grothe of Emmet and Robert Michael Freed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Freed of Omaha, were united in marriage Saturday, December 27, at St. Joseph Catholic church in Atkinson. The 10 a.m. double ring nuptial mass was performed by Rev. Robert Morocco with about 200 guests present.

Miss Leona Kilmurry was organist and played the traditional music and accompanied Miss Beth Keuhn, friend of the bride, who sang, "Oh Bread of Heaven" and "Oh Jesus Thou Art Coming". The altar was decorated with four white trespes and large basket of red and white carnations.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite floor length gown of white clipped Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin, worn over a hoop petticoat. The bodice fashioned of lace was accented by a sequin trimmed yoke of net and long sleeves tapering to deep points over the hands.
A small sequin trimmed lace cap held in place the bride's double tier finger tip length veil of silk illusion. Her only jewelry was a single strand of white pearls gift of the bridegroom. She carried an orchid on a white prayer book with satin streamers. The prayer book was a gift of the bridegroom's grandmother. She also gave the bridegroom a prayer book.
Miss Mary Schauf of Atkinson, a cousin of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. The bridesmaids, Miss Karon Kaup of Atkinson and Miss Betty Spence of Columbus, wore ballerina length identical gowns of red slipper satin fashioned with princess fronts with a V back and full gathered skirt. The low round necklines were lace trimmed to match. They also wore red chiffon pearl trimmed hats with short veils to match, and white and silver slippers. They wore rhinestone necklaces and ear ring sets gifts from the bride.
The maid-of-honor and bridesmaids all carried identical cascade bouquets of white carnations with a touch of green and red with white satin ribbons.
The flower girls, Miss Joan Grothe, sister of the bride, and Miss Gayle Schauf, a cousin of the bridegroom, wore floor length identical gowns of white nylon net over white satin with a high neckline and accented with white satin sash and tiny puff sleeves. They wore small net hats with satin streamers and carried miniature bouquets of white mums, similar to the maid-of-honor's and bridesmaids.

Attendants for the bridegroom were Michael Schauf of Omaha, a cousin of the bridegroom, Paul Seger of Norfolk, and Fred Grothe of Emmet, cousin of the bride. Duane Grothe, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.
The bridegroom and attendants wore white tuxedos with white jackets and black trousers. All wore red carnation boutonnières.
Those serving as ushers were John Freed, brother of the bridegroom, Junior Grothe, brother of the bride, George and Dick Schauf, cousins of the bridegroom. They all wore white carnation boutonnières.
Following the ceremony a dinner was served to about 40 guests. The reception was held from 2 to 4 for about 150 guests. They were both serving in the basement of St. John's Lutheran church. Members of Dorcas Society prepared and helped serve the dinner and reception.
A carnation bouquet centered the bride's table. At dinner servers were: Mrs. Ralph Turner of Alma, Mrs. Merlin McRoberts of Omaha both aunts of the bride and Mrs. Vernon Seibert.
A four tier wedding cake baked and decorated by the bride's mother centered the serving table for the reception. Miss Sandra Cole of Omaha, poured coffee, Miss Beth Watson of Omaha, poured punch, Mrs. Merlin McRoberts of Omaha, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, Miss Paula Stevog of Omaha and Mrs. Vernon Seibert also assisted in serving at the reception.
Miss Arlyce Jones of Atkinson had charge of the guest book. As-sitting at the gift table were Miss Sandra Cole and Miss Beth Watson.

For the wedding, the bride's mother chose a champagne beige tulle dress, with red accessories. She wore a red carnation corsage.
The bridegroom's mother chose a two-piece figured dress of navy blue crepe with black accessories. The bride's grandmother and the bridegroom's grandmother both chose figured navy blue crepe dresses with black accessories.
The bridegroom's mother and both grandmothers wore white carnation corsages. One of the bride's grandmothers was unable to attend due to illness.
The bride graduated from Atkinson high school in 1958. The bridegroom graduated from St. Joseph's high in 1956. He attended college for one semester at Kearney and joined the navy in January, 1956. They entertained at a dance Saturday evening in Atkinson.
Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bridegroom's parents from Omaha and the bride's grandmother from Hastings. Other friends and relatives came from Broken Bow, O'Neill, Emmet, Norfolk, Alma, Omaha, Wisner, Pilger, Stuart, Columbus and Amelia. Also from Wyoming and Kansas.
The bride chose a brown dress and brown accessories for traveling. After a few days in Omaha the bride and bridegroom will finish their trip down through the southern states, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Texas, Arizona on to San Diego, Calif., where they will live while he serves in the navy. The bridegroom just finished serving 19 months in Norfolk, Va.
