Harriet Simmons Leaves Lincoln AFB

PAGE—Miss Harriet Simmons has announced her resignation as youth activities director of Tween and Teen Town at the Lincoln air force base and will be succeeded by Robert Heffekfingler.
 Miss Simmons went to Lincoln AFB in July, 1955, as assistant Service Club director but had to serve as acting director until Miss Grace Horn accepted this position in September, 1956.

It wasn't until December 22, 1957, that Tween & Teen Town was opened with Miss Simmons as director. Since then she has organized the Junior Bowling league and the Junior Rifle club.

Teen Town is now composed of 105 members with 37 members of the Tween Town. These young people have enjoyed many wonderful and exciting parties and excursions as well as guidance in sports and hobbies.

Although Miss Simmons is a native of Page she plans to attend Boston, Mass.
 In wishing the young people the "best of luck," Miss Simmons said she certainly enjoyed the Lincoln AFB relationship and hopes to come back to visit occasionally.
 Miss Horn said "Miss Simmons has always been admired for her poise and efficiency".

Miss Simmons is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons of Page and is a graduate of the Page high school.
 WD—Marlin Wichman to Marlen G. Luber & wife 11-24-58 $3000—Lot 37, Gilg & Swensons Subdivision—O'Neill—Sub. to mtg. of record.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose an Alfred Angelo original gown with molded bodice of Chantilly lace, embroidered with sequins and seed pearls, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. A very bouffant skirt of dainty puffs of tulle swept into a chapel train of chantilly lace over tulle. The sunburst veil of silk illusion, caught up into a double crown of matching lace, sequins and pearls, was hand designed by Mrs. Gabrielle LeFevre, long-time friend of the bride. The bride carried a white pearl prayer book, silver rosary, a handkerchief borrowed from the maid of honor, and one white orchid on a cascade bouquet of stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a diamond cultured pearl necklace and earrings, her wedding gift from the bridegroom.
 She was attended by maid-of-honor, Teresa Delgadillo. Bridesmaids were Edith Waters, sister of the bride, Joan Ford and Evangeline Trujillo.
 The bridegroom was attended by bestman, Donald Falbo. Ushers were Joseph Waters, brother-in-law of the bride, John Lunardi and William Batman.
 The flowergirl was Claudia La France, 4-year-old cousin of the bride. Ring bearer was Joseph Lindberg, 5-year-old brother of the bride.
 Special guests were Mrs. Rose Scholz, maternal great-great aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Julia Nougier, maternal great-aunt of the bridegroom.
 Out-of-state guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindberg, of O'Neill, paternal uncle and aunt of the bride.
 The bride, a graduate of Sacred Heart high school, is presently employed as a stenographer at the Los Angeles city health department. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Lindberg.
