Mr. and Mrs. Chris Reimers and daughter, Carolyn, drove to Cedar Falls, Ia., Friday where they attended the operetta, "Kiss Me, Kate", presented by the department of music of Iowa State Teachers college at the college auditorium. Their son, Bob, played the part of Bill Calhoun (Lancelotti), the second male soloist. "The College Eye" in the college newspaper, had this comment about Bob: "Bob Reimers' contribution of certain inexpressible qualities combined lovely villany with the carefree gambler to bring alive the role of Bill Calhoun. This was in harmony with his relaxed and distinctive voice." Bob is a junior at Cedar Falls.
