Rock Falls Reporter Poses Query
ROCK FALLS—Your Rock Falls reporter doesn't know how the weather was on the second day of February where you live, but Rock Falls residents can look forward to six more weeks of winter.
 That's provided the ground hog theory is correct.
 He saw his shadow a short time in the morning and briefly late in the afternoon.
 That theory may be as sound as any, but your reporter has often been puzzled on this score: Supposing there are no ground hogs in this area?

Butterfield Must Answer to Court
NELIGH—The state supreme court is awaiting an answer from Neligh Attorney Elven A. Butterfield in regard to State Bar association charges of "unprofessional conduct in the practice of law" which have been filed against him.
 Mr. Butterfield has been accused of either testifying falsely in district court or executing a false acknowledgment.
 According to the statement filed with the high court by the bar association, Mr. Butterfield, a notary public, executed a certificate of acknowledgment to a warrant in the presence of Irene and Richard Marston of Dorsey.
 Later in a Holt county district court trial Mr. Butterfield testified that Irene Marston was not present when the deed was executed.
 The incident involved the sale of land by the Marstons to the Drobny's. Marston subsequently wanted the contract set aside.
