

Country Club President

Dr. Rex Wilson was re-elected president of the Country Club at their annual meeting last week. Plans were made to improve the course as well as the club house.

Dr. Wilson Is Re-named Country Club President

Dr. Rex Wilson was re-elected president of the O'Neill country club at an annual meeting last week.

Other officers elected include John Conrad of Emmet, vice-president; Arlen "Shorty" Miles, secretary and John Watson, treasurer. L. A. Becker and D. A. Kersbrook will serve a term as directors.

At the meeting the officers discussed tree planting, tee-off improvements and painting. This year's memberships are available as follows: $30 associate; $25 stock membership; $15 out-of-town and $10 memberships for single ladies.

The officers explained that these were family memberships and anyone wishing to join could contact any of the above men.

Council of Churches Hold O'Neill Meeting; Six Teachers Chosen

The Nebraska Council of Churches for vacation church school leaders and teachers in O'Neill today at the First Presbyterian church. Six outstanding teachers were picked from all over the state to lead the training meeting. The Nebraska Council is sponsoring 26 such meetings throughout the state.

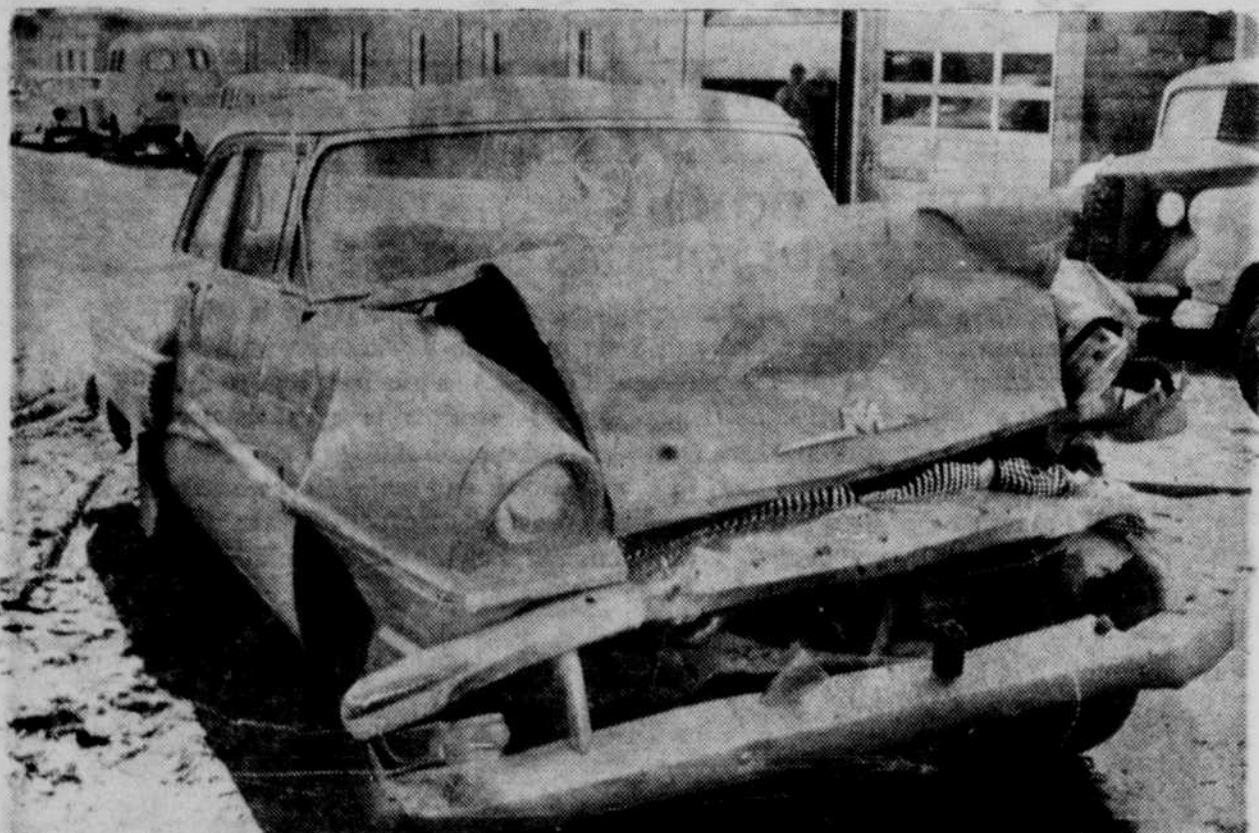

The program during the day will include discussions of administration, the problems of different age groups, teaching methods, texts, activities, and planning daily sessions.

Direction will also be given in the use of audio-visual aids with boys and girls.

$417 Is Contributed

A total of $417 was contributed to the 1959 March of Dimes by the Holt county rural schools. A complete list of amount and teacher's names of the rural schools appear in next week's letters to the editor column on the editorial page.

WEATHER	hi	lo	precip
Thursday	48	20
Friday	44	38
Saturday	53	21
Sunday	60	29
Monday	49	28
Tuesday	49	22
Wednesday	31	29	T

The Pofahl Car

This is the car in which the six month old Pofahl child was killed in a two car crash near O'Neill last week. The bab's mother was rushed to St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill.

6 Month Old Child Killed

A six month old Ewing baby girl died in a Sioux City hospital after she received injuries in a two car crash near O'Neill Saturday.

Teresa Joan Pofahl was a passenger in the car driven by her mother, Mrs. Martin T. Pofahl, of Ewing.

Eugene Hastreiter, the investigating Safety Patrol officer at the

'Get Those Licenses' Police Chief Warns

O'Neill Police Chief Chris McGinn warned today against dogs running loose without licenses.

He said any dog observed without a 1959 license could be caught and disposed of.

He said licenses were available at the police station.

Temperance League To Meet This Evening At O'Neill Church

The Rev. Glenn Kennett, pastor of the O'Neill Methodist church and contact person for the Temperance League of Nebraska in Holt county, announced there would be a meeting at the Methodist church in O'Neill this evening at 8 p.m. for the purpose of discussing a county organization to aid in the work of the Temperance League.

This inter-church program for alcohol and narcotic education is directed by Dr. John F. Norman of Lincoln. The Rev. Jim Sloan of North Platte, associate director of the League and official representative in the western part of the state will be present to state the purpose of the county organization, and outline its functions.

All ministers and laymen interested in this program are invited to attend and participate in the planning of the County program.

Nelson Funeral Monday; Reached Age of 94

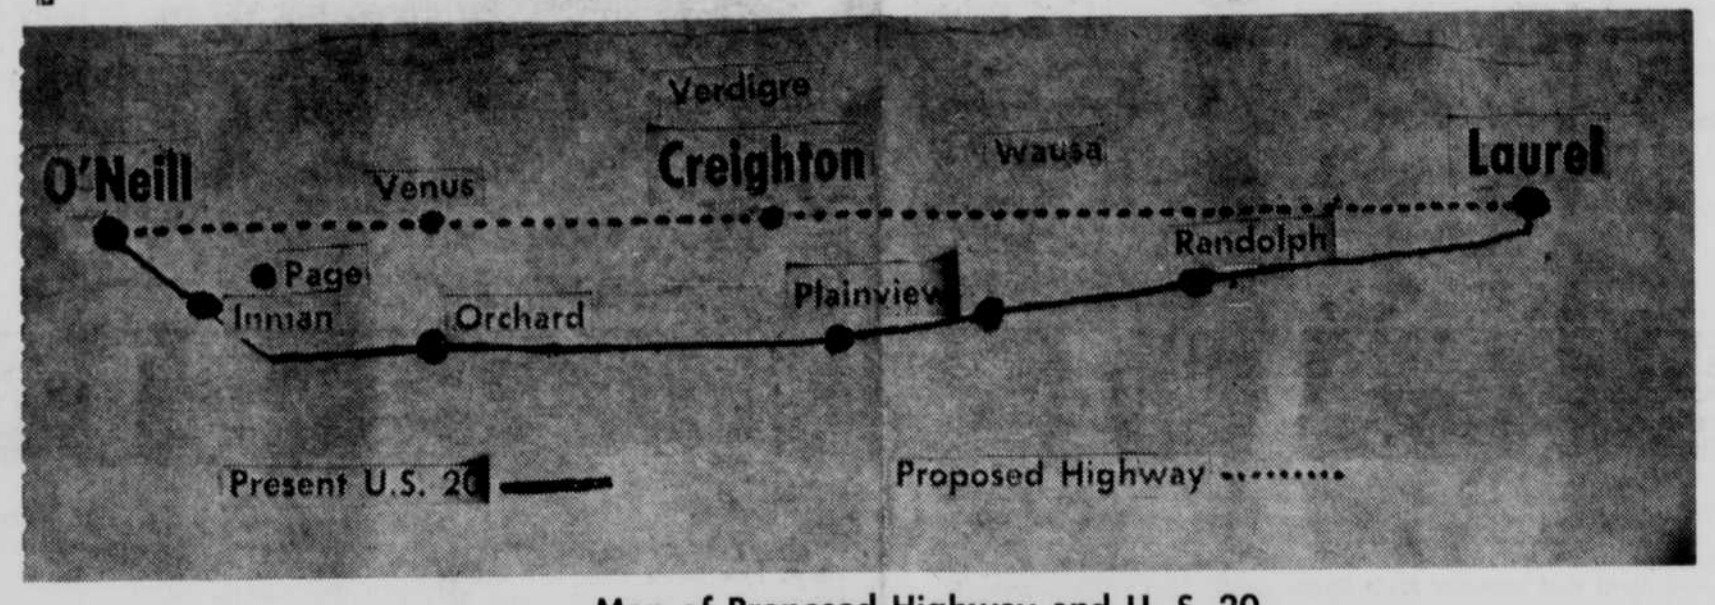

Funeral services for Martina Jensen Nelson, 94, were held Monday in Spencer.

Mrs. Nelson was born in 1864 at Frederikshavn, Denmark, and died February 26 at Las Cruces, N. Mex.

She came to the United States with two brothers in the early 1890's. In 1897 she married Theodore Lars Nelson. The couple lived in South Dakota until 1917 and then moved to Bristow, Mr. Nelson died in 1929. In 1934 Mrs. Nelson moved to Las Cruces to live with a daughter, Mrs. M. A. Thomas.

Funeral services were held at the Pfallbourners were John Kocian, Tom Bowers, Lawson Lightfoot, Delwyn Anderson Jay Howell and Frank Brugman.

Local Delegation to Lincoln for New Hi-way O'Neill Chamber Backs New Road Proposal

Map of Proposed Highway and U. S. 20

This map shows the route of the proposed highway and present U. S. 20. A group of men from Holt and surrounding counties are preparing to send a delegation to the State Highway Commission in an attempt to interest authorities in building the road. The O'Neill Chamber of Commerce went on record officially backing the project.

Sale Dates Claimed

March 6—Knox County land sale of Archie and Oral Cleveland located 13 miles north and 2 1/2 miles west of Orchard. Sale consists of 2 1/2 quarters. A six-room and a 3-room dwelling included. Col Ed Thorin, auctioneer and real estate broker.

March 14—Estate sale of W. R. Tomberg. Selling personal property and real estate. 160 acres including dwelling home in village of Emmet. Col. Wallace O'Connell, auctioneer; Ed Murphy, clerk.

March 15—Jack Sisson selling 924 Head of Choice Quality Hereford stock cows, Heifers and steers. Don't miss this one! Watch for big ad in next weeks Frontier.

March 18—Al Kloppenborg, 3/4 mile west and 1 mile north of Emmet, Tebr., selling livestock, machinery and dairy cattle sale at Ewing livestock market. Col. Wallace O'Connell, auctioneer.

March 28—Complete household furniture sale on east edge of O'Neill, belonging to Jack Murphy. Col. Wallace O'Connell, auctioneer, Ed Murphy, clerk.

Funeral services for Martina Jensen Nelson, 94, were held Monday in Spencer.

Mrs. Nelson was born in 1864 at Frederikshavn, Denmark, and died February 26 at Las Cruces, N. Mex.

She came to the United States with two brothers in the early 1890's. In 1897 she married Theodore Lars Nelson. The couple lived in South Dakota until 1917 and then moved to Bristow, Mr. Nelson died in 1929. In 1934 Mrs. Nelson moved to Las Cruces to live with a daughter, Mrs. M. A. Thomas.

Funeral services were held at the Pfallbourners were John Kocian, Tom Bowers, Lawson Lightfoot, Delwyn Anderson Jay Howell and Frank Brugman.

Lola Montes Spanish Dancers

The third and final presentation of the O'Neill Community Concert will be held Monday at 8:15 p.m. in the O'Neill high school auditorium.

Lola Montes and her Spanish Dancers will perform on the stage and will end the 1958-59 concert series.

Lyle Tucker is elected post commander of the O'Neill VFW Post 926 at the annual meeting Tuesday.

Other officers for the coming year include Otto Sprague, senior vice commander; Ray Tucker, junior vice commander; Tilford Grim, quartermaster; George Morlang, chaplain; Don Richardson, adjutant; Raymond Ravell, service officer; Frank Belmore, officer of the post and Clifford Kizzire, guard.

The post trustees are Joe Schindler, Clyde McKenzie and Louis Wray.

After the election the officers were sworn in by Cleon Pratt, national committee member from the state group.

The next regular meeting will be held at the National Guard armory in O'Neill April 7th at 8 p.m.

Irrigation Is Discussed At Extension Meet

The proposed Ainsworth and O'Neill irrigation project was discussed by the Holt county men and women's extension group, Monday.

William Fegger of the bureau of Reclamation of Ainsworth described the area to be developed and some of the information that had been gathered. He also answered many questions about the irrigation district.

During the business meeting it was decided to adopt the name of Holt Young Men and Women group. There will be no regular meetings until October but a family picnic is planned for July 26 at Rock Falls northwest of O'Neill.

Retailers Prepare For 3 Promotions

The retail bureau of the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce has set aside three tentative dates for city promotions.

On April 2, 3 and 4, the retailers will sponsor and promote a city-wide clearance sale.

On April 16 a new products review will be scheduled. Car dealers and companies showing farm machinery will take an active part.

On May 21, 22 and 23, the retailers will again have a summer dollar day celebration and promotion.

Red Cross Kick Off Campaign

The annual Holt county Red Cross fund drive was launched Tuesday night at a kick-off dinner held at the Town House.

County officers, community chairmen and solicitors heard Gail Dunning, national fund vice-chairman of the Red Cross, emphasized the value of the Red Cross to Holt county residents.

Solicitors began making house-to-house calls on residents in each community in the county Wednesday and letters will go out to all rural routes in the county in the near future.

Requests for Red Cross funds will continue through the month of March.

Treasurer of the Holt county Red Cross chapter, Ben Grady, reported a total of $2,310 contributed in the 1958 campaign. Howard Manson, county fund chairman, in distributing materials to city chairmen, announced a goal of $2,209 for the 1959 drive.

Officers of the county Red Cross chapter are: Kenneth Waring, county chairman, A. P. Jaskowski, secretary, and Ben Grady, treasurer. Howard Manson is county fund chairman. A complete list of community fund chairmen will appear in a later edition of the Frontier.

Local Boy Scouts Ready For 'Good Turn Day'; To Pick-up Clothing

More than 10,000 cub and boy scouts of the Covered Wagon Council will participate in this year's annual Councilwide scout good turn day clothing drive for the handicapped at Goodwill Industries.

Cubmaster Bill McKinlay and the cub scouts will deliver a scout goodwill clothing bag to every home in O'Neill, Page and Chambers, Saturday.

One week later on good turn day, March 21, Scoutmaster Don Maw and the boy scouts will return to the homes to collect the filled bags and boxes of clothing and take them to a central collection station. Goodwill Industries' trucks will pick up the filled bags at the collection station during the following week.

Warner Funeral Monday

Funeral services for Roy Warner of Hornick, Ia., formerly of O'Neill, was held at the Methodist church in O'Neill Monday.

Mr. Warner is survived by his wife, Hazel, one son, Delbert of Hornick, and one daughter, Mrs. Lavern (Donna Rae) Book of Sioux City; also one sister, Mrs. Louis Taggart of Dannebrog, three brothers, John of Atkinson, Fred of Rocelia, Calif., and Elmer of Missouri.

Funeral services were held at the Pfallbourners were Hardin Anspach, Ray Lawrence, Louis Viit, Fred Ernst, Melvin Johring and James Mullen all of O'Neill.

Ewing Boy Is Selected For 1959 Boys State

Ewing—Bill Bauer, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer of Ewing, has been selected to attend the Cornhuskers Boys State this year, sponsored by the American Legion, Sanders Post No. 214 of Ewing.

Bill is a member of the junior class in the Ewing high school and ranks in the upper portion of his class scholastically. He has participated in basketball, football track and music this year.

Keller Girl Injured While Crossing Road

Susan Keller, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keller of Spencer was injured Saturday and was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital in Lynch.

The little girl had gone across the road to the mail box and when she ran across the road returning home, she ran into the side of a car.

Sudden Death

Emma Carter of Verdell died suddenly at her home Tuesday. Funeral arrangements have not been completed. The remains are at the Jones funeral home.

Safety Patrol Called for 2 Truck Crash

The State Safety patrol was called 17 miles south of Atkinson last night (Wednesday) at the scene of a two truck property accident.

Patrolman Eugene Hastreiter, the investigating officer, said a pickup driven by Charles L. Watson, 31, of Chambers attempted to pass a 7-Up truck driven by Bob R. Graber, 28, of Norfolk when the accident occurred.

Both vehicles were traveling north when the 7-Up truck hooked the bumper of the Watson vehicle.

Although both trucks rolled, no one was injured. Passengers in the Watson truck included Mrs. Watson and their young son.

2 Local Men Fined In Holt County Court

Two men were fined by Judge Louis Reimer in County court here Monday.

Blaine E. Garwood of Atkinson was fined $5 and $4 costs for permitting a minor to operate a motor vehicle. Trooper R. L. Gude filed the complaint.

An O'Neill man, John Kilcoin, driver for Tom Zakrewski, was meted a $15 fine and $4 costs for overweight on capacity plates. The complaint was filed by Donald Richardson, scale officer.

Schindler Funeral

Anna Schindler, 78, of Niobrara, died Friday. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Lutheran church in Niobrara. Burial was in L'Eau Qui court at Niobrara.

In the Sand Hills

There's a Little White Church There; It Might Be Lonely, But People Come

The Paddock Union church, just a short distance from O'Neill, served pioneers 70 years ago. It still stands and serves a useful purpose. Members of the congregation have refused to replace it or go elsewhere.

Russell Pierson of Wahoo arrived Saturday to take over duties as assistant county agent of Holt County. He graduated from the agricultural college of the University of Nebraska this last semester after majoring in extension work. Last summer he took training in Phelps county as assistant to the county agent there. He is not married and plans to remain in O'Neill indefinitely.

2 Local Workers Honored

Two local citizens were singled out by the national 4-H committee for outstanding work during the past year.

They are Gary Arthur Mann of Burwell and Gary Fick of Inman. Gary Fick, 15, was named 4-H forestry winner in the state for excellence in his project work.

Young forester Gary Fick was awarded a fountain pen and pencil by an intimation by his state honors.

Last year Fick planted 100 red cedars in addition to caring for 200 plum and green ash trees.

In 1957, his first year, he won a blue award for his forestry book at the Nebraska State Fair where he participated in tree identification judging.

During his five years in the Victory Boys and Girls 4-H Club, Gary has been president and served on numerous district and state 4-H committees.

Another winner in the alumni division of 4-H work is Mrs. Arthur Mann of Burwell. She won the honor of being "most outstanding 4-H club members in Nebraska."

She was awarded a burnished copper plaque in addition to the recognition. Mrs. Mann has been in 4-H work for six years in addition to teaching home economics and heading that department at the Burwell high school.

Although Mrs. Mann is a busy homemaker and mother of three children, she has been an active project leader in Boone county, serving as fair judge and assistant home agent at 4-H functions.

Baseball Meeting

An O'Neill town meeting is scheduled for Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the rear of the Legion Club.

The purpose of the meeting is to organize a town baseball team for the summer.

Band Parents To Meet At O'Neill High School

The band parents organization will hold a meeting March 12 at 8 p.m. in the band room of the O'Neill high school. Band parents from both St. Mary's and O'Neill high are urged to attend.

Mrs. Robert Krutz, president of the organization, said that the purpose of the meeting is to present a constitution for acceptance by the group.

The constitution drawn by the officers and the board of directors.