At cards Mrs. Melvin Carson and John Zumbum held the high scores and Mrs. John Zumbum and Melvin Carson were the low scorers. Mrs. George Wettlaufer had the door prize. Mrs. Clara Waterman and Mrs. Glen Harris served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beelaert entertained at supper Sunday evening in honor of Mr. Beelaert's birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Nissen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Max and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Park. All except the latter couple went bowling later in the evening.

Elmer Trowbridge went to Grand Island February 28 where he joined other members of the Noxious Weed Control Board for a state meeting February 25 and 26.

Mrs. Fern Grass was hostess to the members of the NOK club February 26 at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ivan Heiss, for an informal afternoon of needlework and visiting. Mrs. Milo Landreth and Mrs. William Scheinost were absentees.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. King and

A work meeting followed the morning session of the February 26 morning study class at the Page Methodist church. A covered dish lunch was served at noon. The men did odd jobs of carpentry and plumbing and etc. while the ladies refinished the piano in the Wesleyan room and some old pews there.

The members of the Wesleyan Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Otto Terrill for a work session when bandages were torn and rolled and greeting cards readied for use in mission and hospital work.

The members of the Neighborhood club and their families met at the Legion Hall Sunday evening for a card party.

Mrs. Glen Harris and George Wettlaufer were high scorers while Mrs. Louise Heese held low score and Lee Fink received both the low score token and the door prize.

Lunch was served. Rev. Leslie Mewmaw, Raymond Heiss, Elmer Trowbridge and Merwyn French, sr. attended a men's round-up meeting at Atkinson Sunday afternoon and evening. Five separate sessions were held.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nashlund accompanied Mrs. Richard Trowbridge had medical check-ups.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Heese and family of Page and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heese of Orchard went to Randolph Sunday where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Heese.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Crumly were Sunday dinner guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter De Vall of O'Neill and evening guests in the Robert Nissen home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. King and daughters, Nelta and Elonna, of Columbus were overnight guests Saturday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zellers and Sunday dinner guests with the Zellers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heiss. The group honored the Kings on their 13th wedding anniversary and Mr. Zellers and Mrs. Heiss' birthday anniversaries.

Mrs. Darrell Grass returned to Rapid City Tuesday where she expected to meet her husband, who has been at Chanute Field Air Force Base, Ill. for a period of schooling.

Routine business was taken care of Monday evening when the members of the Page Improvement club were guests of Mrs. J. R. Russell for their March meeting.

Mrs. Alton Braddock was co-hostess. A vote was taken to purchase a gas heater to supplement the heating facilities at the club rooms. Mrs. Melvin Roach will be hostess for the April meeting at the club rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harvey went to Omaha Monday where the latter had an appointment for a medical check-up. They were overnight guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wood at Lincoln and visited Mrs. Wood who is hospitalized for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sorensen and Cheri of Minden were overnight guests Friday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Soren Sorensen, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sorensen and children of Creighton and
