They're New In Town

Don and Harriet Marsh Family Move to O'Neill Last Week

Harriet and Don Marsh are two of this week's featured O'Neill newcomers. The Marshs moved here from a farm west of Neligh in January. Don is the new district manager for the Omaha World Herald.

Scott, 1, and Greg, 3, are the two Marsh children and keep Harriet occupied most of the time. Both Harriet and Don like to bowl but haven't had much time for bowling so far. Don also likes to hunt and fish.

Originally from Oakdale, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh farmed until their move to O'Neill. They have found O'Neill much to their liking in the short time they have lived here, although they still travel to Neligh occasionally to be with old friends. They are members of the Methodist church.

Recent Additions to O'Neill

The Don Marsh family has just arrived in O'Neill. Don holds three year old Greg, while his mother holds one year old Scott. Marsh is a circulation manager for the Omaha World Herald.

Enthusiastic Response
for Bible Camp Meet;
Date Set Tentatively

By Mrs. J. L. Altya
The warmer weather of last week sparked additional enthusiasm for the planning and improving of this year's Cleveland Bible Camp, among its board of directors, who met Monday evening, February 23 at Stuart.

The dates for this year of camping, which had been tentatively set, are now definite, according to the action taken at the meeting. They are as follows—Senior High Camp, June 1-6, Junior High Camp, June 8-13, Juniors, June 16-21.

The daily program at camp will be similar to that customarily used in former years. The annual camp Sunday picnic on June 21 will end the season's camp activities.

Rev. Ralph Chamberlain Nebraska's traveling Missionary from Grand Island, will be the guest speaker for that day.

At the board meeting last week discussion of improvements branched into three areas the possibility of enlarging the cook's house, building a cabin in the boy's dormitory area similar to the ones previously erected for the girls, and home control measures for the ever infringing creek before it slices away any more of the children's play land.

This last mentioned task seemed of first importance to the directors, with the other improvements to be discussed and decided upon as soon as financial estimates are obtained.

A list of camp staff members will be available soon.

At Capping Ceremonies
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haynes attended the capping ceremonies of their daughter at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Lincoln Sunday.

Linda was among 30 receiving their caps.

Cole — Klinefelter Wedding

Violets and yellow tapers decorated the Presbyterian Church in O'Neill, Sunday, uniting in marriage Miss Carol Cleone Cole, daughter of Mr. Charles V. Cole and Wayne Elmer Klinefelter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Klinefelter of Emmet.

Rev. John Hart officiated at the 2:30 p.m. double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor length gown of tulle and lace with long tapered sleeves. The fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline accented with pleated tulle and iris banding of lace. With this she wore a fingertip veil of illusion fastened to a lace bonnet, daintily trimmed in satin edge and bows; also attached to the bonnet was a band which was worn by her mother and two sisters at their wedding. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls. The bride carried a cascade of beauty pink roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Carol Klinefelter, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Miss Connie Menkens, niece of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They appeared in identical nylon chiffon waltz length gowns of yellow and lavender. Their nose-gays were of lavender and yellow carnations.

Dean Klinefelter, brother of the bridegroom served as bestman. Charles Butterfield was groomsmen, Harold and Earl Miller were ushers. They and the bridegroom were attired in business suits with carnation boutonnieres.

Miss Dolores Tharnish, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a gown of white nylon eyelet and dropped beauty pink rose petals.

Master Mark Tharnish, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer. Dressed in a white suit he carried the rings on a heart shaped white satins pillow. Miss Devereux and Kathy Klinefelter, nieces of the bridegroom, very graciously approached the altar and lit the candles. They were identically dressed in white floral nylon dresses.

Claude A. Cole, brother of the bride, was soloist. He sang, "I Love You Truly", "Oh Promise Me," and "The Wedding Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. Harold Seger at the organ.

Mrs. Finetta Murray, maternal grandmother of the bride, was honorary mother. She wore a plum two piece suit with white accessories.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress of formal design, with black accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Fellowship hall for 150 guests.

The table was decorated in the bride's colors of yellow and lavender and centered with the three tier heart shaped wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Joe Kalina and cut by Mrs. Paul Menkens. It was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mesdames Claude Cole and Elroy Lieb poured the coffee and punch.

Misses Sharon and Norma McClellan, Ruth Vonasek and Marilyn Siders served as the bride's waitresses.

For going away, the bride chose a dress of nylon print with white accessories.

They will be at home to their friends at Meadow Grove.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were from Baldwin City and Lebanon, Kan., Norfolk, Omaha, Meadow Grove, Inman, Redbird, Lynch, Walnut, Verdigre, Star community, Emmet and O'Neill.
