Both O'Neill Cinder Squads Wait For Dryer Weather

The O'Neill Eagles Squad

Coach Mary Miller said he expected an "excellent season" from the 40 men he expects to suit up for track this year. With an excellent return of lettermen, Miller believes it will be one of O'Neill's best seasons. Coach Miller can be seen in the middle.

The St. Mary's Academy Squad

Coach Don Templemeyer has 35 men signed up for the 1959 St. Mary's Academy track season this year. The first big event for the squad will be the Burwell relays on April 1. Coach Templemeyer said he looks for a good season this year.

A pair of eager track squads pulled on sweat clothes during the week and hit the muddy roads for first workouts.

O'Neill Eagle coach Marv Miller said he expected about 40 boys to show up and will get things underway in fine fashion with the Wrangler Relays in Burwell soon. He said he expected "big things" from the boys this year and returns with over two dozen lettermen.

The St. Mary's Cardinal's coach, Don Templemeyer will have 35 boys suited up to pound the cinders.

Returning lettermen include Larry Tomlinson, Larry Donohoe, Larry Wanser, Lambert Bellina, Gene Schneider, Gale Stevens and Paul Ziska.

Here is St. Mary's schedule. (The O'Neill high school schedule will appear in next week's sports section of the Frontier.)

April 1, the Wrangler Relays; April 8, Ainsworth Invitational; April 14, the Ord Invitational; April 14, the Sandhill Relays at Bassett; April 21, the Holt County Relays; May 2, the Omaha Archdiocesan meet at Fremont; May 9, the district court, to go into Old Mexico. They expect to be gone at least two weeks.

Friends of St. Mary's are holding a card party Sunday at St. Mary's gymnasium.

Mrs. Lloyd Ruback of O'Neill underwent surgery at St. Joseph's hospital in Sioux City Thursday. She expects to be home on Sunday.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Gatz, a junior at St. Mary's college in Omaha, was home over the weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gatz, Ed Gatz, a pre-med student at Creighton University was also a guest at the C. J. Gatz home.

Miss Edith Gallagher, a student at St. Mary's college in Omaha, spent the weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gallagher.

Little Frank Abart celebrated his birthday Saturday afternoon with a party given by his mother, Mrs. Klieh Abart, for the neighborhood children. Master Abart was one-

OBITUARY

Charles Aroy Warner

Charles Aroy Warner, second son of Zebedee and Mary Johring Warner, was born near Atkinson, Nebraska, on June 21, 1893. He passed from this life Feb. 27, 1959, at his home near Hornick, Iowa.

Mr. Warner, always known as Roy, received his education in a rural school, in the O'Neill Public Schools, and at Grand Island Business College of Grand Island, Nebraska. After his schooling he entered business with his father and elder brother, Walter, in O'Neill.

He was united in marriage on May 9, 1917, to Miss Hazel Wells of Stanton, Nebr. To this union was born two sons and one daughter. (One son preceded him in death.)

In 1936 a move was made to the family farm. In 1941, when his son entered the armed forces, Roy moved to Rock County where he engaged in farming for several years. In 1948 the family moved to Woodbury County, Iowa, where the father and son carried on the business of stockraising and farming until the time of his death.

Roy was past Noble Grand of the Oddfellows Lodge of O'Neill. He was also on the Volunteer Fire Department for many years. He was preceded in death by his father, mother, one son, Kenneth, one brother, Walter, and one sister, Fannie.

Survivors include his widow; one son, Delbert of Hornick, Iowa; one daughter, Donna Rae (Mrs. Laverne Book) of Sioux City, Iowa; nine grandchildren; three brothers: Elmer of Shawnee, Kansas; John of Atkinson, Nebr.; and Fred of Rocklin, California; one sister, Mrs. Louis Taggart of Dannebrog, Nebraska; a number of aunts, other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were conducted in The Methodist Church, O'Neill, Nebraska, with Rev. Glenn Kennicott officiating and The W. Harry Christy Funeral Home of Sioux City in charge. Burial was at O'Neill. Pallbearers were Ray Lawrence, Melvin Johring, Louis Vitt, James Mullen, Fred Ernst, and Harden Anspach. Music was furnished by a mixed quartet composed of Betty Rodman, Sharon Hartmann, Kenneth Peacock, and Duke Kuleira, with Mrs. R. R. Herley at the organ.
