--Obituaries--
 Mrs. Clay Johnson, Sr.
 Mrs. Elsie Johnson was born Elsie Daisy Duncan, daughter of David and Myrtle Duncan, Sept. 1, 1887, at Syracuse, Nebraska. She passed away Feb. 26, 1959, at O'Neill, Nebraska. Her childhood was spent in Omaha, Nebr., where she was graduated from South High School in 1916. Later she studied at The University of Omaha.
 On June 23, 1920, she was married to Clay H. Johnson of Neligh, Nebr. To this union was born three children. After living near Neligh Royal and Page, the family moved to O'Neill in 1935 where they have since resided. Until recently they operated the Johnson Dairy in O'Neill, during which time many lasting and cherished friendships have been formed.
 Mrs. Johnson was a zealous member of The Woman's Christian Temperance Union in which she served in various capacities on local, county and state levels. She was a charter member of The Woman's Society of Christian Service of The O'Neill Methodist Church. She had been presented a life membership in The Woman's Society.
 Aside from her family her greatest devotion was to The Methodist Church. Christian conduct, faithful attendance, and sincere efforts in her church and Sunday School work always have merited an important role in her life.
 Her Christian attitude, firm convictions, and strict moral standards of discipline have endeared her to the hearts of her family and her friends. She may be removed, temporarily, from her loved ones but her actions will be remembered long and by many.
 Survivors include her husband, Clay Johnson, Sr.; one daughter, Phyllis (Mrs. Donald E.) Lay of Kearney; two sons, Roy of York and Clay Jr. of O'Neill; ten grandchildren; three sisters, Bessie (Mrs. Forest) Allen, Maude (Mrs. Carl) Carlson, and Rose (Mrs. Fred) Smith, all of Omaha, Nebraska; other relatives and many friends.

Funeral Services were held Feb. 28, 1959, at The Methodist Church of O'Neill, with Rev. Glenn Kennicott officiating and with Biglin's in charge. Mr. R. W. Johnson of Neligh sang "Goin' Home" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. R. R. Herley presided at the Organ. Pallbearers were: Bennett Gillespie; Darrell Baker; Frank Eppenbach; Donald Maw; Helmut Arnold; and Walter Young; Ushers were: Neil Dawes and Ralph Young. Burial was at Neligh. Out-of-town friends and relatives were present from Omaha, Okla., Plainview, Norfolk, Chambers, York, Kearney, Wakefield, Page, Inman, Ewing and Neligh.

O'Neill Locals
 Mrs. Edith Young returned February 25 from an extended trip visiting relatives and with Biglin's first visited her son, Harold, and family at Chanute, Kansas going then to Kansas City to see her daughter, Dorothy, and new granddaughter.
 Rochester, Minn. was her next stop to visit another son, Stanley, and family. She also visited friends in Spooner, Wis. and saw the Ice Capades at St. Paul, Minn.

LUNDBERG MEMORIAL (Creighton)
