Rabbits for Fun

Who doesn't like rabbits, especially around Easter time? These two are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Erwin of O'Neill. Steven is one and a half years old and his sister, Terry Ann, is three. The Frontier Photo.

Many Church Going Opportunities for Easter in O'Neill Area

Many churches in the O'Neill area will present opportunities for everyone to attend Easter services. Everything from sunrise services to cantatas will be held in this area for one of the most important days in the Christian calendar. These include cantatas in Ewing and Atkinson (see page on and another story on this page) as well as sunrise services in Atkinson and O'Neill.
