Bill Perry Suggests Serving Banana Coconut in Pretty Petal Cups

To dramatize Meadow Gold's new ice cream-of-the-month, Banana Coconut, for party service, Bill Perry, local supervisor of the Meadow Gold Dairy, suggests that you serve the rich, tropical ice cream in pretty petal cups.

Here's the way Beatrice Cooke, director of the test kitchen in Chicago makes the delicate mocha monkey petals.

Banana Coconut Petal Cups
(Makes 10 Cups)

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 1/4 cups sifted, all purpose flour
- 1/2 cup cocoa
- 1/2 teaspoon instant coffee
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 pints Banana Coconut Ice Cream

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in egg and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients and mix well. Chill dough. Roll out on lightly floured surface to 1/8-inch thickness. For each cup, cut five 2-inch circles. Line ungreased 2 1/2 inch muffin pans with 4 circles, overlapping edges about 1/4 inch, and press edges slightly with water and press firmly to seal circles together. Put remaining circle in bottom and press firmly to seal edges. Bake at 375 degrees for 12-15 minutes. Cool and fill each with a serving of the ice cream. Serve at once or put in freezing unit until a few minutes before serving.

The standard of the world in

Character

The moment a Cadillac comes into view it begins to say wonderful things about the man at the wheel. It tells of his fine taste . . . his good and practical judgment . . . his achievements in his chosen field. And the reasons for this are found in the character of the car itself. For longer than fifty years, goodness has been the watchword; craftsmanship the creed. In the lexicon of motordom — Cadillac is the world's best synonym for quality!

The year 1959 marks the anniversary of 100 years of continuous operation by the M. K. Goetz Brewing Company in St. Joseph, Missouri.

We take great pride in this fact. But, even greater than this pride, is the deep sense of gratitude we feel toward those friends, customers and employees who have made this milestone possible.

It is traditional in our family, as well as in the Old World industry, to mark such an event with a special brew.

My grandfather, Michael Karl Goetz, took great pride in his Country Club Pilsener Beer—Famous For Its Flavor Since 1859.

As a tribute to our founder, and for the pleasure of our customers and friends we have brewed this venerable product again just as he would have made it.

It promises you something traditional and yet something different. It will in no way displace any of our fine modern products, Goetz Beer, Country Club Malt Liquor and Goetz Pale Near Beer.

We invite you to try, and to enjoy Country Club Pilsener Beer just as your grandfather did in the pioneer days. With every sip we wish you good health and the same prosperity and happiness you have made possible for us.

Sincerely,

M. Karl Goetz
