

Oil Salesman Is Newcomer

Getting adjusted to life in a small town is the biggest problem of newcomers Gene and Dorothy Bird. The Birds moved in February to O'Neill from Omaha where they had both lived most of their lives.

Gene is sales representative in this area for Socony Mobile Oil and is on the road every day but is usually back in O'Neill each night to be with his wife and two daughters, Georgia, 9, and Diane, 7. Mrs. Bird is a graduate of Washington junior college where she took a business course.

Although in O'Neill only a short time, both Gene and Dorothy are in a bowling team, one of their favorite activities. She bowls for the Blue Birds and he for Foree Fire and Supply.

In Omaha both were active in church work and belonged to the Lutheran church. Gene was a member of the church board and Dorothy belonged to several of the women's organizations.

Besides bowling, the Birds like to play cards and Dorothy occupies much of her time with sewing. Gene is considering taking night or extension courses when they are more settled.

The Birds are beginning to adjust to small town ways and are looking forward to their new life in O'Neill. They now live at 315 N. 1st St.

Pictured above are the three ladies of the Gene Bird home. His wife, Dorothy, and two daughters, Georgia, 9, and Diane, 7. The girls are in the third and first grades, respectively.

Noffke-Koenig Vows Said

Elizabeth Maxine Noffke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noffke, Ewing, became the bride of Eugene Koenig, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Koenig, Ewing, April 4 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Ewing.

Before an altar decorated with white pompoms and blue carnations, Rev. P. F. Burke officiated at the 9:30 a.m. double ring ceremony and nuptial mass.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white French lace and nylon tulle fashioned with a fitted bodice. The scalloped neckline was highlighted by a sequin trim and the long sleeves tapered to bridal points. The full skirt was trimmed with rows of hand clipped French lace and featured a full gathered flounce. She carried a white prayer book, gift of the bridegroom, with a white phalaenopsis orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Frances Noffke was maid of honor and Mrs. Mary Lois Heumesser and Miss Janet Noffke were bridesmaids. All are sisters of the bride. They wore identical gowns of blue taffeta, ballerina length, with matching white capriettes. They carried crescent colonial bouquets of blue lace carnations, accented with tufts of nylon net and satin streamers.

Best man was Tom Koenig, brother of the bridegroom. Leonard Koenig, Ewing, and Jerry Koenig, Lincoln, were attendants and ushers were Emil Adamson, O'Neill, and Larry Noffke, Ewing.

Mother of the bride wore a two piece turquoise dress. Mother of the groom wore navy blue. Each had white accessories and a white rose corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony and mass at St. Dominic's Hall.

Mary Ann Nelson, Neligh, was in charge of the guest book. Clarabelle Minkus was in charge of the gift book and tagline and was assisted by Irene Kaczor and Mona Mosel.

Mrs. Emil Adamson cut the cake. Mrs. Jerry Koenig served and Mrs. Leonard Koenig poured. Servers were Catherine Bauer, Sharon Schmidt, Vera Del Daniels, Mary Miller and Lynette Helmrichs.

For her going away ensemble, the bride chose a two piece beige dress with white accessories. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home on a ranch south of Ewing.

The couple are, both 1936 graduates of Ewing high school. Mrs. Koenig has been employed for the past two years in Neligh. Mr. Koenig has assisted his father in ranch and farm work since graduation. (Picture will appear next week)
