Mr. Harrington (Ronnie Parks) saved the life of a Hindu slave girl (Connie Riege) after he took his wife to the train station to go visiting. Then he finds himself in real trouble as he tries to conceal her from his mother-in-law (Kay Nissen) and his snooty neighbor (Marlene Frahm). Even with the help of his friend, Dr. Douglas (Dennis Cork) and the family maid (Veronica Ferriehs), his secret is soon found out.

The mystery deepens as the mother-in-law is kidnapped by a Hindu mystic who is later captured by the local sheriff (Jim Miller). After Mrs. Harrington return the mystery slowly unravels.

The Page Nine Clubs Orchard

The Page baseball team journeyed to Orchard Friday where they dealt Orchard a 13-2 setback. Both teams have had little practice and it was evident in all aspects of the game.

Clair Parks was on the mound for Page and turned in a commendable job, allowing only four scratch singles over the 7 inning route. The Eagles gave him good support with the bats as they banged out 13 hits including two booming triples by Ralph Simmons, plus fine hard smashes by Fred Cronk, Dennis Cork and Clair Parks. Jon Cork turned in the fielding gem of the game, making a fine one-handed running catch of a fly ball.

Coach Park played all 13 boys. The lineup included Rod Kennedy, catching; Clair Parks, pitching; Arnold Hall, first; Dennis Cork second; Ralph Simmons, short; Fred Cronk, third; Gene Harvey, left field; Norman Wettlaufer, center and Jon Cork right field. Capable reserves were Pat O'Brian, Ronald Asher, James Melcher and Loren Boelter. The next game will be with Inman.
