County Women Hear Mrs. Jane Scott Speak About 'Happier Sewing'

Mrs. James Scott from the Simplicity Pattern Company appeared before an audience of about 200 yesterday afternoon. The event was the Holt County annual tea and program in observance of National Home Demonstration Week.

Home extension club members and other guests heard Mrs. Scott speak on the topic "Fashion Your Figure," following a tea from 2 to 2 p.m., at the Legion Hall, Mrs. A. T. Crumly gave the welcome and Ethel Saxton, district supervisor of home agents introduced the guests.

Mrs. Scott gave many ideas and tips "for happier sewing" her talk. She noted that about five million garments are made in homes each year and that most women make five garments with each pattern they buy. She described the processes the Simplicity Company use in making new patterns and said they put out about 14 new patterns a month.

Mrs. Scott suggested that women keep a sewing recipe book to keep sewing ideas as carefully and accurately as cooking recipes are kept.

Following her talk, Mrs. Scott demonstrated points she had made with models wearing demonstration dresses. Models were Mrs. Rallo Berry, Stuart, and Mrs. Jay McConnell, O'Neill.

High School home economics students and their teachers were present from Stuart, Ewing, O'Neill, Atkinson, Lynch, and Chambers. Many 4-H clubs were also present.
