Beelaert-Prill Vows Exchanged Sunday

At the Page Methodist Church, before an altar decorated with candelabra, Brenda Faye Beelaert and Robert L. Prill were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon, May 24.

Rev. Leslie E. Mewmaw officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beelaert and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prill are the respective parents.

Mrs. Faye Rutherford, organist, accompanied Dale Stauffer, who sang, "Through the Years," "The Lord's Prayer," and "Living for Jesus."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of imported French lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice was of lace, designed with a sabiner neck and embroidered with sequins. The long sleeves tapered to bridal points at the wrists. The full skirt of nylon tulle featured a lace peplum effect, extending into a chapel train.

Her veil, fashioned by her mother, was of imported Italian tulle and lace and was held in place with a jeweled headpiece. She wore a silver necklace and earrings, gifts from the bridegroom. Her bouquet was a cascade of pink roses with lilies-of-the-valley.

Maid-of-honor was Joyce Dobrovoly of Atkinson. Arlis Edwards was bridesmaid and Becky Beelaert, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. They wore identical ballerina-length, mint green gowns of net, lace and satin, fashioned with bouffant skirts, fitted bodices, and short boleros. They wore matching hats and carried wedding ring bouquets of pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Maureen Prill was flower girl and Devon Fischer of Wakefield was ringbearer. They are niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

Barbara Beelaert of Orchard, and Randall Stauffer, cousins of the bride, were candle-lighters.

Don Prill was best man for his brother. Groomsman were Jerry White of Albion and Vernon Schmidt of Chambers.

Robert Beelaert, brother of the bride, and Robert Van Horn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, ushered.

The mothers of both wore dresses of blue nylon lace with pink carnation corsages. The bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Marie Beelaert of Ewing and Mrs. H. S. Harper of Ewing and Mrs. Marvin Linquist and Lois Saltz.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduates from Page high school. The bride attended Wayne State Teachers College and Norfolk Junior College, and has been teaching school. The bridegroom served two years in the armed forces and is engaged in farming.

For traveling the bride chose a dress of green and white dacron. She wore a white orchid corsage.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside at their farm home near Page.

Out-of-town guests were from Chicago, Bassett, Albion, Amelia, Creighton, Atkinson, Ewing, Orchard, Imman, Wakefield and Bruns- wick.

Funeral services were held at Kearney, Wednesday, May 13, at 2 p.m., at the Nielsen Mortuary with the Reverend Gale Moon of the Methodist church officiating. Remains were laid to rest in the Kearney Cemetery. Pallbearers were John Lizer, Jack Stenger, Ray Heiner, William Rutner, Chadney Walearth and Earnest Stone.

Edith Hamik Marries John Tielke, Stuart

Edith Hamik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamik, Atkinson, and John K. Tielke, son of Mrs. A. J. Tielke, Stuart, were united in marriage May 25 at the Saint Joseph Catholic church in Atkinson.

Rev. Robert Morvoco officiated at the 9:30 a.m. double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with two bouquets of white gladioli. Music was by the Saint Joseph High school choir.

Appearing with her father the bride wore a gown of Schiffl embroidered nylon tulle, fashioned with a molded bodice with long sleeves tapering to bridal points. The gown featured a sabiner neckline and a pleated tulle front panel. A Watteau back panel fell over the bouffant floor length skirt.

Her fingertip length illusion veil was attached to a crown of sequins and pearls. She wore cultured pearl earrings and necklace, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried a small cascade of red sweetheart roses and stephanotis on a lace covered Prayer Book. She placed a bouquet of red roses before the Blessed Virgin.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Robert R. Tielke, Atkinson, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Mary Strafa, Atkinson, and Mrs. Milton E. Weichman, Stuart. The bride's attendants appeared in blue lace-over-taffeta gowns styled with fitted bodices, modified sabiner necklines and three quarter length sleeves. The ballerina length skirts were at the waist line with a satin cummerbund and large bows.

They each carried a star shaped bouquet of blue carnations.

Robert Tielke, Atkinson, served his brother as best man. Attendants were Charles Hamik, Atkinson, brother of the bride, and Milton Weichman, Stuart. Ushers were Raymond Hamik, O'Neill, and Ivo Shald, Stuart.

The bride's mother chose a powder blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a pink lace dress with white accessories and a red rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a small breakfast was given for the wedding party by Mrs. Betty Tielke at the Knight's of Columbus Hall. At 12 noon a dinner was given for the immediate family, close relatives and friends. The dinner was prepared and served by friends of the bride and 100 guests were present.

A reception was given later at the Knights of Columbus Hall with 200 guests. Sharon-Davis was in charge of the flowers. Mrs. Larry Cobb and Miss Sandra Davis were in charge of the guest book, with Miss Minnie O'Connell and Ethel Strafa at the gift table. The three-tier cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Coufal and her daughter of Stuart.
