Miss Ruth Novak Weds Mr. Herman Meyer in Pender Ceremony

The Assembly of God church in Pender was the setting for the May 23rd wedding of Ruth Novak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Novak of Pender, to Herman Meyer, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer, sr., of Atkinson.

Rev. Ernest Rosenkrans solemnized the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of blue majestic daisies and white gladioli and miniature palms.

Mrs. J. S. Rihaneck of Thurston, pianist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloists. Leon Hammack of Minneapolis, Minn., who sang "Because," and Mrs. Gene Novak of Thurston as she sang "I Love You Truly," and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, designed her own gown of traditional white satin. The waist was satin overlaid with Chantilly type lace, had a sweetheart neckline, a lace collar, and long lace sleeves pointed at the wrist. The floor-length satin skirt with overskirt of tulle had wide inserts of Chantilly type lace from the waist to the floor. Her fingertip veil of tulle was edged with matching face. She carried a lavender orchid with lily-of-the-valley on a white ribbon.
